Dear Sir:--

I am enclosing herewith a letter to Miss Elizabeth T. Bentley whose address and whereabouts is unknown to me but is probably well known to you.

Since I assume that the F. B. I. is taking every precaution to protect Miss Bentley from the possible vengeance of the 'Reds', you would hardly forward any mail to her without careful investigation. I am therefore leaving her letter open for your full scrutiny before forwarding it. I don't know much about 'boobytraps' but suppose it might be possible to conceal one in a fairly fat letter

Sincerely

Arthur Bailey

ASAC Belmont of the New York Office called me this morning to advise that Special Agent Joseph Kelly, who has been contacting Elizabeth Bentley in the past, received a telephone call from her at seven o'clock this morning. She was calling from the Pennsylvania Station. She stated that she had been taking instruction in the Catholic Church for a period of some time from Msgr. Sheen. She states that Msgr. Sheen mentioned to her that Emanuel Signund Larsen, who you will recall was a subject in the Jaffe Case, has been in touch with Msgr. Sheen to see about studying Catholicism and making a full statement.

Msgr. Sheen advised Elizabeth Bentley that in the past he had had a very good unofficial contact with the Bureau whereby he could obtain information to help him judge his future actions inasmuch as he was not desirous of assisting someone in joining the church whose background would indicate they were not sincere. Msgr. Sheen further indicated to Elizabeth Bentley that those contacts which he formerly had with the Bureau had either been transferred or had left Washington and that he could not get such information now.

Elizabeth Bentley stated that she told Msgr. Sheen that she had been dealing with two Agents from the New York Office over a period of the past couple of years who appeared to be very fine men. She asked if she should pass this information on from Msgr. Sheen to Agent Joe Kelly and he asked her to do so and to have her tell Agent Kelly that he would like to establish contact with someone in the Bureau well versed in Communism, preferably a Catholic, inasmuch as he could talk more freely with a Catholic.

At 9:25 a.m. today, I phoned SAC Gleason, New Haven, with reference to New Haven teletype of December 16, 1948, and instructed that he determine whether Bentley had ever been associated with the Institute of Human Relations at Yale University. H. B. Fisher, [REDACTED] is associated with the Institute of Human Relations and is in an excellent position to secure the information desired by the Bureau on a confidential basis. Mr. Gleason stated that Mr. Fisher had been ill but he would contact him to see if he could give any information pertaining to this matter.

Begony Case

DRJ

I am enclosing herewith an article taken from the Huntsville, Alabama, Times, issue of March 11, 1949, concerning an appearance of Elizabeth Bentley before the American Legion at Huntsville.

Special Agent GLENN H. HEARN advises that this newspaper article, according to several prominent citizens in Huntsville, who attended the talk, reflects a true summary of her talk. Mr. WALTER EIGENBROD, an attorney at Huntsville, who is a close friend of Agent Hearn and is a well regarded attorney there, informed Agent Hearn that Miss Bentley made a statement that she was sponsored by the American Legion Headquarters and endorsed by the FBI, this statement allegedly being made by her at the beginning of her talk.

Agent Hearn discreetly contacted Mr. JAMES R. RECORD, Adjutant, American Legion Post No. 37, Huntsville; Mr. JEAN A. BATTLE, Moderator, a brother of Representative Laurie Battle of Alabama; BOB AXELSON, member of American Legion Post No. 37 and reporter for the Huntsville Times; and ROY BLAIR, Tax Assessor of Madison County; and all of these individuals advised him that Miss Bentley made no such statement regarding an endorsement by the FBI, but that she was most complimentary of the Bureau.

Mr. EIGENBROD was informed by Agent Hearn that we did not endorse such programs; however, Mr. Eigenbrod stated at that time that it was his desire to write a letter to Mr. Hoover to inform Mr. Hoover of Miss Bentley's actions.

The above information is being furnished to you in the event Mr. Eigenbrod should address a communication to the Bureau.

Learn About Reds Ex-Spy Declares,

Religious, Democratic Campaign Is Stressed By Elizabeth Bentley

The American people must learn what communism is basically and how its program is presented, Miss Elizabeth Bentley, self-confessed Red spy, told county residents in a talk sponsored by the American Legion at the Circuit courtroom last night.

She urged a positive campaign based on building up beliefs in religion and stressing the aspects of democracy as counter-measures to Communistic propaganda.

Deriding the notion that most Communists are seedy-looking wild-eyed radicals who carry bombs tucked in each pocket, Miss Bentley said such a pattern is not followed in the U. S. today.

"Communists here are an even more deadly type. They are men and women of the highest integrity who are born and reared here. They receive no money and are not adventurers."

She said that her motivation for joining the party was based on a hatred of fascism as practised in Italy where she lived for a year under Mussolini. Most people who first enter the movement are idealistic and think they are working for a world movement to benefit humanity, she said.

The Vassar and Columbia university graduate pointed out that the U. S. Communist party is the biggest agency recruiting spies and courier agents. She entered the movement in the Fall of 1934 after meeting a Communist who agreed with her anti-Fascist views.

Miss Bentley stated she joined the Communist front organization using the name of her ancestor who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. According to her, she became molded into the Communistic pattern of thought by excessive demands with party functions and required reading of Red papers and magazines.

"I had no time to know anyone outside the party and the discipline gradually tightened. In 1938 I went underground, used a single contact and the secrecy was intensified."

Miss Bentley said she was required to submit a complete dossier on her family and friends which was thoroughly checked by Russian enemy agents. In addition, she received expert training on the various methods of sabotage, removing secret documents and avoiding detection.

The self-confessed spy said that she aided Earl Browder, former U. S. Communist party head, and others in setting up elaborate spy rings in Washington offices including the Pentagon and Office of Strategic Services.

Infiltration was possible into very high level and super-secret government agency with the exception of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, she stated. Acting as secret courier, Miss Bentley said that she forwarded all information to places where it could be copied and taught other Red workers on how to obtain it.

Her awakening came in August, 1945, she said, after she learned that Browder received orders direct from Moscow and secret police told her she was one of the Russian agents.

"The impact of what I was doing struck home after they attempted to award me the Order of the Red Star, which is one of the highest decorations offered by the Soviet government."

Accordingly in August, 1945 after a two-week vacation, she went to the FBI and revealed the information she knew. She worked as a counter-agent for two years. In 1948 she was summoned to Washington to appear before two Congressional committees as a witness in the Red spy case hearings.

Miss Bentley was introduced by James A. Lane, national vice-commander of the American Legion. Gene Battle, committee chairman, acted as moderator. A short talk was given by Roy L. Stone, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners and Frederic H. Heidelberg, Post 37 chaplain, gave the invocation.

An open forum followed the Red spy's talk and a number of questions were asked by the audience on some of the various phases of communism.

Re: GREGORY
ESPIONAGE - R

Dear Sir:

Miss ELIZABETH BENTLEY, the informant in instant case, telephonically contacted the New York Office on August 16, 1949. She advised that some time between September 8 and 12, 1949, she will proceed to Chicago to take up a teaching post at Mundelein College in that city. Miss BENTLEY plans on her arrival in Chicago to reside at the home of Mrs. LANNERS, 1533 Highland Avenue, Chicago 40, Illinois, telephone Sheldrake 3-7537.

Miss BENTLEY was given the address and telephone number of the Chicago Office. In the event it becomes necessary for the Chicago Office to interview Miss BENTLEY after her arrival there, it is suggested that she first be contacted at her home rather than at the college. After Miss BENTLEY gets settled it may be possible that she will be in a position where an interview can be had with her at the college if the urgency of the matter requires it.

Very truly yours,

On May 1, 1950, ELIZABETH BENTLEY advised this office that apparently Mundelein College had released a story to the Chicago papers indicating that she had left the college and apparently was taking up residence in Washington, D. C., or intended to appear as a witness in Washington, D. C. She related that she had not seen a copy of the news release but was informed of this by a reporter for the New York "Daily News," who indicated he received the information from a UP release. She related that she told this reporter that she left the college because the climate did not agree with her; that she had no intention whatsoever of residing in Washington; and so far had not appeared as a witness in any litigation in Washington, D. C.

MISS BENTLEY also stated that when she left Mundelein, she gave her forwarding address as that of her aunt, MARIAN TURRILL, 82 MacDougal Street, New York City. She also related that on May 1st a reporter for the Chicago "Sun-Times" had inquired of her aunt, in New York City, the reason for MISS BENTLEY'S leaving the college and whether or not she was living in Washington, D. C. MISS BENTLEY advised that her aunt did not give this reporter any information.

MISS BENTLEY informed that she has no desire whatsoever to talk to any newspaper reporters in connection with the reason for leaving Mundelein College and related that if any reporters are successful in reaching her she does not intend to give them any story in this connection.

This matter is being brought to the attention of the Bureau as a matter of information concerning the activities of MISS BENTLEY.

A MODERN MATA HARI

Liz Bentley Does Story Of Her Life with Reds

Elizabeth Bentley was in a giggly mood while she handed her cream to a Herald reporter.

Finishing dinner at the University Club with the 9316th Volunteer Reserve Training Squadron she was to speak later at the University of Bridgeport with some inside tips on Communism which she learned while a spy for that party.

WESTPORTER PUBLISHER

Miss Bentley, now thoroughly re-conditioned as a loyal American, is writing the story of her life.

Title and place are secret. The publisher is Westport's Capt. Thomas O. Sloane 3rd, editor with the Levin-Adair Company which he said also published John T. Flynn's "The Road Ahead."

Miss Bentley should have a knockout story, having shocked the nation two years ago as its first confessed Mata Hari, with a Vassar degree at that.

Her daily testimony before the Un-American Activities Committee was a saga that officially ended only last March. William W. Remington, since cleared by the government's top loyalty review board, sued her for $100,000 libel. Miss Bentley settled with him out of court.

FAMILY IN MILFORD

Add facts unknown till now: Miss Bentley said her family's name is inscribed on rocks at Milford.

They were the Turrills who later moved to New Milford.

In the latter town she was the only child of the newspaper publisher who later sold out to the Worley family.

Oddly enough, the Worleys have married into the Turrill family, Miss Bentley related.

She has not been back to New Milford, where these two connections were made during the Washington uproar:

Her aunt, Mrs. Edith Ferriss Turrill, said: "I think Elizabeth was in love with John Golos and he lured her into it."—E. B.

DATE: October 9, 1950

On September 28, 1950, Miss ELIZABETH BENTLEY telephonically communicated with this office from her summer residence in Westport, Connecticut, and advised that she would be leaving there in a day or two to return to New York City for the winter.

On October 3, 1950, Miss BENTLEY was interviewed at her present residence, the Hotel Commodore, New York City, and she advised that she had returned to New York for permanent residence and she expected to remain at the Commodore Hotel for a few days, after which she would move to the Shelton Hotel.

Mr. T. Donegan called from New York today and advised that the foreman of the former Grand Jury, Mr. Brunini, had contacted him and stated that he has been helping Elizabeth Bentley on her book; that he has, however, taken no money. He stated that Bentley did not want Brunini to tell Mr. Donegan about this help, and she claimed to have told the New York Office about it.

It is desired that this matter be checked with New York to see if they have been furnished this information and the details be submitted in a memorandum for the Director.

ADDENDUM: October 16, 1950

I called ASAC Whelan of New York at 5:10 P.M. to determine whether they had received any information concerning the above. Mr. Whelan stated that Mr. Donegan called him this afternoon around 4:00 P.M., after he had talked to Mr. Ladd and stated that Mr. Brunini had told him, Donegan, today that he had been collaborating with Bentley on her book and that she had indicated to Brunini that the publisher and she were interested in seeing that he would get such fees as were due him. According to Mr. Donegan, Brunini asked him for advice as to whether he should accept any fee for work on this matter. Mr. Donegan stated that he told Brunini that under no circumstances should he do this - that this would be very important so far as defense attorneys were concerned in both the Brothman and Remington cases when Bentley testified.

Mr. Whelan advised that he is checking with the Special Agents who handle Bentley and after he has had a chance to talk to them, a detailed teletype will be submitted by the New York Office.

Reurtel October 16, 1950, wherein you report information concerning a contact between Elizabeth T. Bentley and agents of your office on October 12, last.

Obviously information furnished by Bentley concerning her association with Brunini should have been reported to the Bureau immediately. It should have been apparent that this association between Bentley and Brunini, the Foreman of the Grand Jury before which Bentley testified and which indicted William Walter Kemington, was one which would most certainly react adversely if the information became known to the general public. Agents of the New York Office are correct in not furnishing advice to Bentley or to anyone else who requests such as was indicated in your referenced teletype.

You are requested to call this matter to the personal attention of the agents who handled Bentley and you should be particularly alert that matters such as this are promptly reported to the Bureau in the future.

ASAC Whelan of New York advised on October 30 that Bentley has been in touch with the New York Office and with the U. S. Attorney's Office and has definitely stated that she is under surveillance. She expects in addition that her telephone is probably tapped. She indicated that newspapermen Woltman and Frank have indicated to her that they know she is under surveillance.

Mr. Whelan stated that Bentley is residing at the Shelton Hotel. The NY Office has no satisfactory contacts at that Hotel. He suggested the possibility of Miss Bentley moving to the Prince George's Hotel where the Bureau does have good contacts. He said, however, that such a move might entail the necessity of the Bureau supplementing the daily rate paid by Bentley to the extent of perhaps $1.50 to $2.00 a day.

Mr. Whelan was advised that it was considered inadvisable for the Bureau to be involved in paying for Bentley's hotel room at this time. He was told that there were no objections, in view of Bentley's indicating that she was concerned about the surveillance, for the NY Office to assist her in locating another hotel room but that no supplemental payments in connection with the room should be made by the Bureau.

Who is Robert Morris?

GREGORY, ESP. -R. AT THE REQUEST OF USA IRVING SAYPOL, ARRANGEMENTS WERE MADE TO HAVE MISS BENTLEY MOVE FROM HER ADDRESS AT THE SHELTON HOTEL TO THE PRINCE GEORGE HOTEL. THIS WAS ACCOMPLISHED ON OCT. THIRTY FIRST, FIFTY. ON NOV. FIRST, FIFTY, MISS BENTLEY COMMUNICATED WITH THIS OFFICE AND ADVISED THAT THE PREVIOUS EVENING SHE HAD HAD A CONVERSATION WITH ROBERT MORRIS. MORRIS INDICATED TO HER THAT HE HAD RECEIVED INFORMATION TO THE EFFECT THAT THE FRANK BIELASKI AGENCY WAS NOT SURVEILLING HER OR CONDUCTING ANY INVESTIGATION IN CONNECTION WITH HER ACTIVITIES IN NY. MORRIS RELATED THAT HIS INFORMANT HAD ADVISED THAT REMINGTON "DID NOT HAVE THAT KIND OF MONEY." BENTLEY THEN RELATED THAT SHE AND MORRIS CAME TO THE DEFINITE CONCLUSION THAT SINCE SHE WAS BEING FOLLOWED AND IT WAS NOT BIELASKI, IT MIGHT VERY WELL BE THE COMMUNISTS. SHE STATED SHE BECAME QUITE CONCERNED OVER THIS AND THAT MORRIS HAD SUGGESTED THE POSSIBILITY OF OBTAINING THE SERVICES OF "A COUPLE OF NEW YORK POLICE OFFICERS WHO ARE ON THE RED SQUAD." Purpose:

To advise that Robert Morris is a New York Attorney who during Spring of 1950 was Assistant Counsel of the Subcommittee on Foreign Relations, U. S. Senate (Tydings Committee). Background information set out.

Background:

Reference is made to a teletype from New York dated November 2, 1950, entitled, "Gregory; Espionage - R" which states that Elizabeth Bentley had been in conversation with Robert Morris concerning who might be investigating or following Bentley. You inquired, "who is Robert Morris?"

Mr. Tom Donegan advised Mr. Hennrich today that Morris is identical with Robert Morris who was Assistant Counsel of the Subcommittee on Foreign Relations, U. S. Senate, (Tydings Committee) during the Spring of 1950; that when he appeared before the Federal Grand Jury in New York City in the Amerasia case this year he furnished the following background information concerning himself.

He was admitted to the New York State Bar in 1939 and thereafter practiced one year with a New York law firm. He then became Assistant Counsel to the New York State Legislative Committee investigating subversive activities in the New York schools. (The Rapp-Coudert Committee.) Thereafter he served four and a half years in the Navy and was assigned to ONI, New York City on the so-called "Commie Desk." Then he was assigned to assist Admiral Nimitz as psychological warfare officer. After the war he practiced law in New York City for two years at

RE: PAYMENT TO ELIZABETH BENTLEY OF $2000.00
BY ANATOLI GROMOV

Rebulet 12/14/50 regarding the above-mentioned caption.

In May of 1945, BENTLEY saw, for the last time, her contact JACK (JOSEPH KATZ). Just prior to this last meeting JACK introduced her to the contact she had then known only as AL but who subsequently was definitely identified as ANATOLI GROMOV, the First Secretary of the Russian Embassy in Washington.

In subsequent meetings with GROMOV, the latter made overtures of buying BENTLEY a fur coat, suggested that she quit her job and take a vacation, offered to supply her with an air conditioning unit when she complained of the summer heat, and on almost all of the occasions of her meetings with him, after the initial one, mentioned his willingness to set her up in a small business to be financed by him which would be located outside of New York City and perhaps in Philadelphia or Washington. MISS BENTLEY'S recollection was that they had some conversations about setting up a small hat or dress shop for this purpose.

In October of 1945, BENTLEY saw GROMOV by prearrangement and at this time he handed her $2000.00 in $20.00 bills, and at the time he gave her the money he stated there were "no strings attached." It was BENTLEY'S impression at this time that this payment to her was for her past activities in connection with the Russians, as well as an attempt on the part of GROMOV to secure her good will.

On November 16, 1945, while MISS BENTLEY was being interrogated by SAS THOMAS G. SPENCER and JOSEPH M. KELLY in the Prince George Hotel in New York City, she mentioned the facts as related above, as well, of course, as other information during this rather extended interview. At the conclusion of this interview on November 16th, arrangements were made for the continuance of the interview on the morning of November 17, 1945, at the same hotel. Immediately upon MISS BENTLEY'S entering the room on this occasion, even before she took off her coat and hat, she opened up her purse, took out an envelope, threw it on the bed and stated, "Here's some Moscow gold." MISS BENTLEY was informed that the FBI would take possession of this money and although no offer was made to give her a receipt for same she did not in fact request one. Thereafter, the money was taken to the New York Office and subsequently placed in the safe-deposit box that is maintained by the New York Office at the Park Row Branch of the Manufacturers Trust Company. The money still remains in this safe-deposit box.

In so far as the final disposition of this money is concerned, it appears that only two possibilities exist: (1) that it be considered as espionage money as a result of MISS BENTLEY'S activities with the Russians, and in that event it in all probability would have to be turned over to the Treasury Department; and (2) the other solution would, of course, be to have this money returned to MISS BENTLEY. In view of the fact that MISS BENTLEY was recently a witness in the ABRAHAM BROTHMAN case and is scheduled to appear as a Government witness in the current trial of WILLIAM WALTER REMINGTON, this matter was discussed on a confidential basis with Special Assistant to the Attorney General T. J. DONEGAN. MR. DONEGAN stated that in his opinion this matter should remain "in status quo" until such time as the REMINGTON case has finally been resolved. He stated that any attempt at this time to establish the ownership of these funds might lead to some embarrassment. He stated that he was of the definite opinion that some decision would have to be made in so far as these funds are concerned but indicated that it might be well not to consider this until the final disposition of the REMINGTON case has been effected.

The Bureau's attention is called to the fact that since 1945 the services of MISS BENTLEY as a witness and as a highly placed informant have been utilized by this office and also by the Chicago Office during the six-month period she resided in that City. During this time she has not been paid for her services, with the exception of a Christmas gift that was given to her this year and the reimbursement to her in the amount of $25.00 during the preparation of the REMINGTON and BROTHMAN cases when MISS BENTLEY was in Westport, Connecticut, writing her book. During the time she has been interviewed by Agents of this office she has on two or three occasions inquired into what disposition would eventually be made of this money. She was informed on all these occasions that this was a matter that would have to be decided sometime in the future and, of course, no definite commitment was made to her regarding these funds.

Letter to Director, FBI

MISS BENTLEY'S financial condition at the present time is satisfactory in that all of her living expenses are being paid for by her publisher through January of 1951. Thereafter, her financial condition will depend on the way in which her book is received by the public. If it is not well received, she, of course, will have to obtain some employment to maintain herself as she has no savings or independent income. It, of course, would be a nice gesture if this money could be returned to her; however, this cannot be recommended by this office in view of the circumstances surrounding the manner in which she obtained this money, particularly the fact that it was MISS BENTLEY'S impression that this was payment to her for espionage activities she had participated in on behalf of the Soviets.

In view of MR. DONEGAN'S comments, it is not believed that any decision should be reached as to the disposition of these funds until the final disposition of the REMINGTON case, and at that time the comments of MR. DONEGAN, as well as of this office, will be forwarded to the Bureau.

SUBJECT:

For record purposes, Miss Worlick of the Speakers and Artists Bureau of NBC phoned advising that she was scheduling lectures for Elizabeth Bentley and wondered if we could give her assurance that Miss Bentley was a hundred per cent all right as she did not want to have any complaints that Bentley might actually still be a spy.

Miss Worlick was advised that no statement of endorsement could be given by us to her although she could readily appreciate the fact that Miss Bentley had spread on the public record her present beliefs. For example, not only has she appeared as a Government witness before Grand Juries and in Federal Court, but she has written articles for McCall's Magazine and recently published her own book, all of which were matters of public record from which she could form her opinion. Miss Worlick was advised it was not the Bureau's policy to issue endorsements on any person for commercial purposes. She stated she understood this and that obviously the Federal Government would not utilize Miss Bentley unless it had some reliance in what she had to say. No further action is required.

Christine Sadler, who was formerly with the Washington Post and who is now the Washington representative of McCall's Magazine, came in to see me on January 23, 1951.

O She pointed out that McCall's Magazine is seriously considering purchasing the serial rights to Elizabeth Bentley's new book; that her editor has read the manuscript and told her it is one of the most fascinating documents he has ever read and will be a sure-fire success.

As the word got around in the publishing trade that McCall's had the first magazine rights to the book word was given to the editor that he should go slow because Elizabeth Bentley was on the verge of being discredited. She talked to Phil Graham of the Washington Post about this and Phil suggested that she see me. I told her that, of course, we could not give her any advice as to whether they should or should not publish the Bentley story. I asked her, however, if it would not be logical to assume that if Miss Bentley was vulnerable and if she could be discredited, would this not have occurred long before now. She had not thought of this. I further suggested that she might check into the cross-examination of Miss Bentley in the Remington case because it would appear that if anyone was able to shake her certainly an attempt would be made in this case.

I further told her that the Bureau had a great deal of respect for the veracity of Elizabeth Bentley and that over a period of years on those matters which were susceptible to verification they had been verified; that so far as the Bureau was concerned Miss Bentley had been very forthright in all of her statements to us.

ELIZABETH BENTLEY'S "MY LIFE AS A SPY" STARTS IN MAY McCALL'S

Elizabeth Bentley, self-confessed Communist Agent, who gave the F.B.I. the first inside story of the whole Communist spy system in America, reveals how she became emeshed in the Communist Party - in the first installment of her story, "My Life As A Spy", which appears in May McCall's - on the news-stands April 20.

Miss Bentley names names of people, places and organizations which led her to become entangled in the Red spy network of New York and Washington. She tells how she was changed from a vacillating young woman into a disciplined, obedient Bolshevik; of comrades who faltered and were liquidated; and of early meetings with her Russian lover.

The McCall's story quotes Miss Bentley on her importance to the Russian government. She says, "A Russian agent told me: 'I've known about your work for the last two years....I'm the man who sits behind the desk in Moscow and keeps track of the reports. In fact, I've been sent over here especially to see you and tell you that we all think you've done splendidly and have a great future before you.' Later he told me the Russian government had awarded me the Order of the Red Star."

In a foreword to the story, the Editors of McCall's point out that they are presenting Elizabeth Bentley's "My Life As A Spy" as a "human document of tremendous interest and significance at this time, when the Communist threat to our country has been intensified all over the world." Additional installments will appear in June, July and August McCall's.

Tom Donnelly in his column which appeared on page 23 of the "Washington News" for April 24, 1951, reported on the press conference given for Elizabeth T. Bentley by the editors of "McCall's" magazine at the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C., on the afternoon of April 23, 1951. He also referred to Miss Bentley's story entitled, "My Life as a Spy," the first installment of which began in the May issue of "McCall's."

After Donnelly refers to Miss Bentley's introduction to the press, he writes, "No new sensations were unleashed tho there was a hint that Miss Bentley may figure prominently in the news a few weeks from now."

You are requested to advise whether you have any information concerning Donnelly's quoted statement.

Televised, and Now Serialized

By TOM DONAHUE

ELIZABETH BENTLEY, who is always described in newspaper stories as a "self-confessed Communist courier," is currently making the inevitable transition from headlines to memoirs.

The editors of McCall's have sandwiched the first installment of Miss Bentley's confessions, "My Life as a Spy," in among the May collection of recipes for Hawaiian Casserole and fictional studies of tortured wives who suspect their tall, lean, handsome husbands of philandering.

Miss Bentley was introduced, once again, to the press at a McCall's-sponsored conference at the Carlton yesterday afternoon. No new sensations were unleashed, though there was a hint that Miss Bentley may figure prominently in the news a few weeks from now. She looked very much like a Vassar girl of the class of '35 or thereabouts, which she is, and quite unlike the "Red Spy Queen" of a couple of years ago, which she also is, allowing for the inflation which invariably accompanies the use of printer's ink.

Miss Bentley read a prepared statement to the effect that she hopes that her story "will be read by as many people as possible," and that these readers "will see what Communism is really like and avoid getting entangled in it."

The first installment of Miss Bentley's memoirs (a lengthier version will come out in book form in July) ends, in the approved women's magazine fashion, with Miss Bentley's sweetheart asking her if she will stick with him.

"What should I say?" writes Miss Bentley. "Here was the man whom I admired, loved and trusted. I belonged with him, no matter what. 'I'll stick with you,' I said. It was my most fateful decision."

I expected, of course, that one of the many ladies at the press conference would ask Miss Bentley what was to happen to her romance with this man, a hardened Communist, in Installment Two.

None of them asked, however, and somehow I felt too embarrassed to. One newspaper lady, a representative of a generation preceding Miss Bentley's own, asked Miss Bentley some even more provocative questions. "Miss Bentley," demanded this lady, "do you think this expose of yours will help your country as much as your spying hurt it?" Miss Bentley replied, "That's for the Government to decide, I suppose."

In response to questions she has been asked hundreds of times, Miss Bentley said that she was drawn into the Communist movement because she was "idealistic," saw that things in this country were very bad during the depression, and mistakenly believed that the Reds would make a better world. The elderly newspaper lady snorted at this, and looked about the room as if to invite everyone else to join her in laughing at the utter absurdity of this explanation.

"A lot of us went thru the depression, too," the newslady said, "and we didn't turn Communist."

Miss Bentley repeated her statements about her misguided idealism, etc., but it was clear that she was up against a set of very popular reactions. Many people believe (a) that the Communists are everywhere but that (b) it is somehow inconceivable that Communists really exist and look very much like anybody else and (c) that any one who ever was a Communist is guilty of an aberration so extreme that his testimony as to the operation of the Party is suspect as either wild fantasy or some sort of ingenious lie designed to help Moscow.

Miss Bentley has been lecturing at various colleges, and she says that the Communists are still able to recruit students by first appealing to their "sense of injustice," as regards race prejudice, etc. "Of course," Miss Bentley points out, "Peace is the big appeal now. People are naturally against war, and the Communists sometimes persuade them that joining the Party is one way of helping to prevent war."

CONFIDENTIAL NATIONAL DEFENSE INFORMANTS; THE INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ 134-435-✓
Reurlet April 24, 1951, listing a number of individuals and requesting an opinion as to whether or not they should register under Section 20 of the Internal Security Act of 1950.

Your attention is directed to Section B of SAC Letter # 32, Series 1951, dated April 7, 1951. Your attention is specifically directed to the comments on page 8 thereof as follows:

The Attorney General has authorized the Bureau to make a determination in cases of individuals utilized by the Bureau for intelligence purposes whether or not it would be in the interest of national security for the individual concerned to register. Accordingly, in the cases of individuals being utilized by the Field for intelligence purposes who come within the purview of this Section of the Act, you should furnish to the Bureau a copy of the detailed signed statement taken pursuant to the above instructions, together with such facts and recommendations as will be pertinent to the question of whether the registration of the individual concerned would or would not be in the interest of national security.

In the case of persons such as Whitaker Chambers, who have been publicized, and who are no longer active informants, and where reports have already been furnished the Department, it is not expected that any request for exemption from registration for such persons will be made by the Bureau.

Accordingly, in regard to each of the individuals mentioned where you feel they could be exempted from registration, you should furnish to the Bureau a copy of the detailed signed statement taken pursuant to the instructions set forth in SAC letter # 32, together with such facts and recommendations as will be pertinent to the question of whether the registration of the individual concerned would or would not be in the interest of national security.

These letters should be captioned in the appropriate files of the individual subjects concerned and should not be submitted to the Bureau under the general heading used in reflect.

Rebulet April 26 last.

On May 2, ELIZABETH BENTLEY was interviewed in connection with the comments set forth in the referenced letter, and she advised that during the press conference she had with the editors of McCall's magazine, she remembered that a Mr. DONNELLY asked her quite a few questions.

She stated that BENJAMIN GITLOW was being interviewed that day in Washington in connection with the McCARRAN Bill, and DONNELLY asked her if she would be involved in any of the hearings relative to the McCARRAN Bill. She told him that she did not know as she had not been requested to appear in this connection. It was her recollection that DONNELLY told her that he felt quite sure that she would make an appearance regarding this particular bill.

She advised that it is quite possible that this particular part of the discussion may have resulted in his comment to the effect - "No new sensations were unleashed tho there was a hint that Miss BENTLEY may figure prominently in the news a few weeks from now."

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a letter which is self explanatory. In a veiled way a reputable and respected person who objected to the articles being published by Elizabeth

I do not know Mr Mich but I venture to say once there was "sky" on the article by Miss Bentley - the first - I have a suspicion beneath the surface of this defective Communist and I have a right to object to it. I am a member of this

Mrs. E. J. Lintner

Falls Church, Virginia

Dear Mrs. Lintner:

This is in acknowledgement of your letter of June 5th.

I am sure that you have misunderstood our purpose in presenting Elizabeth Bentley's story. It is certainly not to glorify her career as a Communist and a spy, but rather to present an authentic object lesson to our country at this time when the Communists are just as guilty of aggression on the home front as they are abroad.

Far from making a heroine of Miss Bentley, McCall's is using her tragic story to point a moral.

As for her veracity, I do not blame you for mistrusting the word of any ex-Communist. However, eight years have passed since she recanted and told her story to the F.B.I. In that time, she has been instrumental in the conviction of many Communist spies.

Before deciding to publish this story, McCall's queried the F.B.I. and others in Washington, and learned that very careful checking had revealed her to be accurate in every statement she made to government officials after she quit the Communist party.

I think you will find that the Communists will be the most ardent opposition to the Bentley articles, and the rest of us will benefit.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel D. Mich

TO : Director, FBI
FROM : SAC, New York
SUBJECT: GREGORY
ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: September 29, 1951

On September 24, 1951, ELIZABETH BENTLEY moved into a house she recently purchased. The address of this residence is New Road, Madison, Connecticut, telephone number Madison 248.

As the Bureau is aware, Miss BENTLEY has been handled since the time she originally came into the New York Office in November, 1945, by agents of the New York Office. For the past five years she has been interviewed intermittently on various matters concerning internal security, espionage, and related matters in connection with the Bureau's work. These interviews with Miss BENTLEY have been handled by two agents of this office. Occasionally it has been necessary to have Miss BENTLEY interviewed by an agent not familiar with her background and on a few occasions this has been found to be not too satisfactory, although Miss BENTLEY has been most cooperative in all instances.

In view of the fact that Miss BENTLEY has decided to live permanently in Connecticut and has an established residence there, it is believed advisable that an experienced agent or agents of the New Haven Office be designated to handle all interviews with her in the future. It is to be noted that her present residence, Madison, Connecticut, is approximately 115 miles from New York City. In the event it is necessary to interview her, this requires the time of two agents to drive to Connecticut and return, which consumes two agent days for any interview that is had with her. It is to be noted that in all interviews with Miss BENTLEY since the time she first came to the New York Office, two agents have always been present. It is suggested that this practice be followed by the New Haven Office.

In the event the Bureau agrees with the suggestion that the New Haven Office handle Miss BENTLEY rather than the New York Office, it is believed advisable that the various field offices throughout the Bureau should be advised, probably by Bureau Bulletin or some other communication, of this change. It is suggested that the Bureau advise the New York Office if this contemplated change should be made, in view of the fact that leads are continually coming into this office from the various field offices, some of them for expeditious handling.

Reference is made to New York's letter of 9/29/51 suggesting that the New Haven Office rather than New York handle future interviews with Elizabeth Bentley in view of the fact that she has established permanent residence in Madison, Connecticut, where she has purchased a house on New Road.

The Bureau desires that her position as a cooperative informant not be jeopardized. Therefore, it is felt that there should be no immediate transfer of Miss Bentley from the New York Office to New Haven. Rather, the Bureau feels that this transfer should be gradual and not completely consummated until the New Haven Office is adequately equipped with the necessary background information concerning her and the investigations in which she has been involved. It is believed that New Haven must have this information before it can intelligently and efficiently handle Miss Bentley with the maximum success. Therefore, the Bureau desires that the following action be taken:

New York should continue to handle Miss Bentley until further advised by the Bureau. The next time an Agent of the New York Office has occasion to interview Miss Bentley arrangements should be made with the New Haven Office in order that the New York Agent en route to Madison, Connecticut, can stop in at the New Haven Office and thoroughly brief an Agent to be designated by the Special Agent in Charge of the New Haven Office concerning all pertinent information about Bentley and the information she has furnished the Bureau. The Bureau desires that the New York Agent be one who is thoroughly acquainted with all information pertaining to Bentley, her personality, eccentricities, etc. The Agent designated by the Special Agent in Charge at New Haven should be a mature agent and one who has had considerable experience in the espionage field, as well as experience in handling security informants.

After the New Haven Agent has been thoroughly briefed, he should accompany the New York Agent on his interviews with Elizabeth Bentley. After this interview the New Haven Agent should accompany the New York Agent on all future interviews until such time as the New Haven Office feels that it is in a position to efficiently handle all interviews with Miss Bentley. At this time New Haven should advise the Bureau that it will handle all interviews with Miss Bentley in order that the Bureau can advise the Field Offices.

In order that New Haven may be thoroughly acquainted with Miss Bentley's background it will undoubtedly be necessary for the New York Office to furnish it with pertinent serials, etc., pertaining to her and the cases in which she has been involved. It is believed that this matter can be appropriately handled at the time the New York Agent contacts the New Haven Office.

Mr. Higgins stated that Elizabeth Bentley was going to lecture in York on Thursday night of this week under the auspices of the College Club and he had heard that she had been cleared by the FBI and was supposed to be employed by the State Department. He stated he had checked with the State Department and found she was not employed by the State Department and hence he wondered as to whether the FBI cleared people or not as it seemed most unusual to him. He was informed that the FBI does not clear anyone as this was not a function within our established jurisdiction.

Elizabeth Bentley Living In Madison, Hopes For A Life That Will Be Less Hectic

Named Ex-Communist Spy Sittles in Shoreline House; May Take Teaching Job

Madison, Oct. 16—(Special)—Elizabeth Bentley, who was front page news for many months as a communist who left the party to aid the FBI in exposing Communist infiltration into Government circles, has moved to Madison.

On Saturday Miss Bentley received the deed to her home on New Road which she bought about three weeks ago. The five-room house, built by Jack King, was formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. David Merwood.

Miss Bentley chose Madison, she said, as the town in which to make her home because of its proximity to the Sound plus the fact that she managed to find there just the right type of house with a couple of acres of land—just what she had been seeking. It was natural for her to look in Connecticut for her home, she said, having been born in Litchfield and having spent many of her summers in Stony Creek. Last Summer she spent in Clinton.

After 10 dramatic years as a Communist spy and six more as a spy for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Elizabeth Bentley is now planning a less hectic life. Her present plans include furnishing her new home, including a good-sized garden and perhaps accepting a teaching position. She also fills speaking engagements and is available for these through a lecture bureau.

Recently she taught political science and government in the Midwest but, she said, "My frequent absences did not help class morale. I gave up the teaching."

On September 24 of this year the story of her life with the Communist Party and the Russian Secret Police was published. This book, "Out of Bondage," is the first thing she has written. She said she found writing it hard and considers the finished product "amateurish," however, the autobiography, agreeing with details brought out in Congressional hearings, Grand Jury investigations and major espionage trials, reads like a "mystery story" and gives a good picture of the work of the Communists in New York and Washington.

Elizabeth Bentley, the Communist spy who recanted and gave testimony to Congress which resulted finally in the conviction of William Remington, State Department employee, for perjury, is shown resting comfortably at her new home in Madison. On Miss Bentley's lap are her cat and her book, "Out of Bondage," which tells of her days in the Communist underground and her work for the Communists in World War II.

Crisis in Old Lyme

During the course of her work for the Communist Party she met and fell in love with Jacob Golos. She was associated with him for some time before it was revealed to her that he was chief of the Russian Secret Police in the United States.

It was after his death that she came to realize that she was working for the wrong country and decided to try to make amends. Close to a breakdown over her indecision as to whether to risk her own life and the lives of all those who had been her friends for years, she came to Old Lyme to rest and make her decision.

While there she entered a church by chance. Sitting quietly in meditation she immediately thought of the 23d Psalm: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me." She came out of the church with her decision reached.

The next problem was how to contact the FBI without being discovered by her associates. Not daring to take a chance on being seen either at FBI offices in the Court House in New York or going to the Washington office, centrally located, she chose the New Haven FBI office as the place to reveal her undercover work. She still checks with the agents of that organization twice weekly.

After she finished her book the 250 pages describing her life before she became a Communist, were eliminated by the publisher. "He considered," says Elizabeth Bentley sitting in her new Madison home "that my early life had been most dull."

Elizabeth Bentley called at the Reception Room and I explained your absence to her and escorted her to Mr. Ladd's office.

She stated that she was very disappointed that she didn't get to meet you and hopes that she will have an opportunity to shake hands with you at some future time.

The following will confirm telephone conversations had with Mr. Noel Story of the Criminal Division on March 3, 6 and 10, 1952, concerning the prospective testimony of Elizabeth Bentley in the proceedings presently pending before the Subversive Activities Control Board. Miss Bentley is expected to testify that in 1945 she received the sum of two thousand dollars from Anatole Gromov who was then First Secretary of the Russian Embassy in Washington, such money to be used as payment to her for her work and her expenses.

In November 1945 Miss Bentley advised Special Agents of this Bureau that she had received the sum of two thousand dollars from Anatole Gromov in October 1945. At the time Gromov gave her this money he told her that "there were no strings attached," and it was her impression that this payment was made to compensate her for her assistance and also in an endeavor to secure her good will. Miss Bentley voluntarily turned over to Special Agents of this Bureau an envelope containing two thousand dollars in bills stating "Here's some Moscow gold." The money was taken into the possession of the Special Agents at the request of Miss Bentley and no receipt, therefore, was furnished or requested. The money remains in a safe deposit box maintained by our New York Office in a bank in New York. No identifying marks were placed upon any of the bills by Miss Bentley.

The foregoing circumstances are recited inasmuch as they bear upon the request by Mr. Story for information as to whether there can be made available evidence to substantiate Miss Bentley's anticipated testimony concerning her receipt of the moneys involved. From the circumstances it would appear that any endeavor to corroborate Miss Bentley's testimony by production of the money would inescapably require testimony by the Special Agents to whom Miss Bentley related her story and to whom she delivered the money in question.

PURPOSE:

To advise that Confidential Informant Elizabeth Bentley contacted the New York Office on the evening of May 7, 1952, and advised that she had been severely beaten by her caretaker; and to recommend that the United States Attorney in New York be advised and arrangements made for her to discuss this matter with the U. S. Attorney since she is scheduled to be a witness in the Remington case.

DETAILS:

At 1:00, P. M., on May 8, 1952, ASAC Whelan of the New York Office telephonically advised that Confidential Informant Elizabeth Bentley had contacted SA Tom Spencer of the New York Office on the evening of May 7, 1952. She advised SA Spencer that she had had her caretaker call for her at New Haven to drive her to Madison, Connecticut. En route, she observed that her caretaker appeared to have been drinking, whereupon she became frightened and took over the wheel of the car. He started to pull at the wheel whereupon she stopped the car. She claims he hit her and she became unconscious. Upon regaining her senses, she tried to escape but he threw her bodily into the car and drove her home.

As a result of the beating inflicted upon her, her face became infected and she has now moved to a hotel in New York where she is receiving treatments. She advised SA Spencer that she had attempted to fire the caretaker but he refused to leave. She did not want to report the matter to the local police because she realized that if this episode became public knowledge, it would ruin her career as a lecturer and it would also seriously impair her effectiveness as a witness in the Remington case. Consequently, she wanted advice as to how she should proceed in connection with this personal problem.

SA Spencer feels that Miss Bentley's story set forth above may be false and that actually she and her caretaker may have been drinking heavily together and became embroiled in an argument resulting in his beating her. SA Spencer has also advised that Miss Bentley told him that she is going through a change of life and is receiving treatments from the same doctor who is presently treating her for the wounds inflicted by the caretaker.

ASAC Whelan stated that he thought that the U. S. Attorney in New York should be advised of this matter and if any advice is furnished to Miss Bentley, it should be given by the U. S. Attorney.

RECOMMENDATION:

If you agree, ASAC Whelan will be instructed to furnish the U. S. Attorney the facts regarding this matter and will also make arrangements for Miss Bentley to discuss her personal problem with the U. S. Attorney.

At 5:40, P. M., on May 13, 1952, ASAC Whelan called from New York to advise that U. S. Attorney Miles Lane, AUSA Cohn, and Elizabeth Bentley had held a conference today in Lane's office regarding the difficulty she has been having with her caretaker, John Wright. As a consequence, Mr. Lane has arranged for Miss Bentley to call Wright down to New York tomorrow, at which time Lane is going to talk to him. Lane intends to start out by being nice and then if Wright gives him trouble, Lane will hear down and serve a Grand Jury subpoena on him with the threat to call him in before the Grand Jury if he causes Bentley any more difficulty whatsoever. Whelan is arranging with the New Haven Office to get the identifying data on Wright, the caretaker, so that we can check our files on him. The above action by Lane is in keeping with our desire that the U. S. Attorney handle this matter insofar as possible and that we not become involved.

SUBJECT: ELIZABETH BENTLEY

ASAC Whelan, of the New York City Division, called on May 12, 1952, to advise that in accordance with Whelan's discussion with AUSA Cohn regarding Bentley's troubles with her caretaker, Cohn had seen Bentley at her hotel last Saturday night. Cohn is thinking in terms of arranging for a job for the caretaker in New London and by this procedure getting the caretaker out of Bentley's sphere of operations. In order to get more factual data, however, Cohn wants to talk to Bentley's doctor and has her permission to do so. He has an appointment at 6:00 pm tonight. Cohn would like Agent Spencer to go along with him.

I told Mr. Whelan that this was a matter we would like the United States Attorney's office to handle, but inasmuch as Bentley is our informant and has been a valuable one, it is permissible for Spencer to go along with Cohn as an observer only and not to make any suggestions in this matter.

At noon on May 13, 1952, ASAC Whelan called back to advise that AUSA Cohn interviewed Dr. Samuel Groopman last night. Dr. Groopman, who is Bentley's physician, according to Whelan, is reliable and is house doctor for the Lapham Hotel in New York City. Special Agent Spencer accompanied Cohn as observer. Miss Bentley and a friend known only as Lady Armstrong were also present. Mr. Whelan said that Lady Armstrong is a wealthy anti-Communist resident of Connecticut who is active in Catholic circles and who has befriended persons such as Bentley who have been affected by the Party. Mr. Whelan was of the opinion that Bishop Sheen put Bentley in touch with Lady Armstrong.

INDEXED-118

RECORDED-118

Dr. Groopman said that he had examined John Wright, Bentley's caretaker. This occurred at the time Wright drove Bentley to New York and Wright had an examination by Dr. Groopman on some minor matter. Dr. Groopman commented that Wright is below average mentally, a braggart and an adolescent type. He felt that Wright intends physical harm to Bentley and in his mind there was no question that Bentley was afraid of Wright and feared physical harm from him. He recommended to Bentley that she sell her place and move out of the area; however, she does not want to do so.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

Bentley wants to get her research material out of her home, have the locks changed on her doors, and have her car brought down from Connecticut.

AUSA Cohn, following the interview, pointed out that Bentley is a very important witness in the Julius Rosenberg case where her testimony was given considerable weight by the Circuit Court showing the tie-in between the Communist Party and the espionage activities of Rosenberg. He said she is also an important witness before the Subversive Activities Control Board, in the Remington case and in the matters Cohn presently has before the Federal Grand Jury in New York, such as the Kaplan case and matters involving UN personnel.

Mr. Whelan pointed out that Bentley will be a very important witness in some of the Soviet espionage cases presently being worked in New York, concerning which Mr. Cohn knows nothing. In addition, she is, of course, a key witness in the Silvermaster case in the event it is revived.

AUSA Cohn feels that there is a very real problem involved in the present situation of Bentley and one that should be settled from the standpoint of the government cases involved. Cohn is thinking in terms of bringing the caretaker Wright before a grand jury on charges of interfering with a government witness. Prior to considering this further, he will need background information on Wright.

Mr. Whelan suggested that we make discreet inquiries on Wright in Connecticut and find out if he has a criminal record, his reputation and background, and to discreetly determine just what has been going on at Bentley's home in order to provide the necessary material to Cohn.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that Whelan be authorized to have a discreet check made of Wright and his background, as suggested, in order to provide material to AUSA Cohn for possible grand jury hearing on Wright. We should have more facts regarding this matter to intelligently handle it and protect the government's interest. Whelan was instructed to get sufficient identifying data on Wright at once in order that an appropriate check could be made through the New York and Bureau files. Whelan was further advised that Cohn should continue to carry the ball on this matter but we should continue to be alert to developments to protect the Bureau's interest. The key to this matter appears to be the caretaker and with additional facts concerning his background it may be possible for Cohn to handle this matter by calling him before a grand jury and warning him on the basis that Bentley is a government witness.

Reference is made to my memorandum of May 13, 1952, regarding the difficulty Elizabeth Bentley has been having with her caretaker, John Wright.

Supervisor Tom McAndrews, of the New York Division, advised on May 15, that Wright had been interviewed by USA Myles Lane. Wright, at that time, told a little different story than Bentley. He said that Bentley had been drinking and he had, therefore, taken control of the car from her. He admits that when she resisted, he physically attacked her.

USA Lane, according to McAndrews, told Wright "to get out of Bentley's life" and that he would take action against Wright if he further interfered with Government witness Bentley in any respect. As a result, Wright turned over the car keys and automobile to Miss Bentley and in so far as is known at this time is complying with the United States Attorney's instructions.

Mr. McAndrews said that Wright has a criminal record for assault in Connecticut. I requested that he prepare an over-all letter on this entire incident for record purposes and in it provide sufficient background on Wright so that we could check our files here on him.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI

FROM : SAC, New York (65-14603)

SUBJECT: GREGORY
ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: May 16, 1952

Attention: Assistant Director A. H. Belmont

On the afternoon of May 7, 1952, ELIZABETH BENTLEY personally appeared at the New York Office and advised that she wanted to discuss a very personal problem.

Miss BENTLEY related that about a week ago she had informed AUSA ROY CORN that she would be unable to keep a scheduled appearance with the Subversive Activities Control Board in view of the fact that she had had an accident in her home which resulted in her face being rather badly cut and swollen. She stated that this was not true, and that as a matter of fact on April 30, 1952, she had been assaulted by her handyman, JOHN BURGHARDT WRIGHT...

By way of explanation Miss BENTLEY stated that in November, 1951, some time after she had purchased a home in Madison, Connecticut, she found that because of her lecture tours and other outside activities it was necessary for her to have someone help her in running her household. She employed WRIGHT, who is married to ELIZABETH PIERCE WRIGHT and who resides on the Post Road at Madison, Connecticut, as a handyman. His employment was satisfactory up until the early part of March, 1952, when she discovered that WRIGHT had been charging liquor to her account and was otherwise acting as if he were one of the household rather than just an employee. She was about to discharge him when she was stricken with "black influenza" and was confined to her bed for a period of a month.

Miss BENTLEY stated that on April 27, 1952, she had a speaking engagement in Toledo, Ohio. After fulfilling this engagement she returned to New York City, and on April 30 she called WRIGHT and asked him to meet her at the railroad station in New Haven, Connecticut. He met her as prearranged, and when they were about a mile or so out of New Haven en route to Madison, she observed that his driving was not too steady and she got the impression that WRIGHT had been on a prolonged drinking spree. She related that she then took the wheel, and after driving another mile or so WRIGHT grabbed the wheel and turned off the ignition. When she finally got the car stopped she asked WRIGHT why he was tampering with the automobile while it was moving, and he said nothing, but hit her on the side of the face and chin with such force that she temporarily blacked out, and when she came to she found herself on the side of the road outside of the automobile. She attempted to run to the nearest home for assistance, but WRIGHT grabbed her, put her back in the automobile, and drove her to her home in Madison.

The next day Miss BENTLEY requested WRIGHT to drive her to New York City, which he did. She then went to Dr. SAMUEL GROOPMAN, who has his office in the Latham Hotel which adjoins the Prince George Hotel on East 28th Street, where Miss BENTLEY lives while she is in New York City. According to both Dr. GROOPMAN and Miss BENTLEY, her condition was quite serious in view of the fact that as a result of the beating inflicted on her by WRIGHT several teeth on the left side of her face were loosened, two of her lower teeth had gone completely through the lower part of her face, and the cuts on the inside of her mouth had become infected.

Miss BENTLEY advised that she wanted very much to return to her home in Madison, but because of her fear of WRIGHT, wanted to have two agents assigned as bodyguards in order that WRIGHT might not continue to annoy her or inflict bodily harm upon her.

The Bureau was telephonically advised of the above facts, and at the suggestion of the Bureau these facts were made known to USA MYLES LANE. USA LANE advised that since AUSA ROY COHN had handled Miss BENTLEY in the past, he was going to assign this matter to him.

On May 12, 1952, AUSA ROY COHN advised that he had made an appointment with Miss BENTLEY's Doctor for that evening, and requested that an agent of this office familiar with the BENTLEY case accompany him. Again on the advice of the Bureau, an agent of this office did accompany COHN, but merely as an observer.

Upon arriving at the Doctor's office it was observed that not only Dr. GROOPMAN was in his suite, but Miss BENTLEY and Lady ARMSTRONG were also present. By way of explanation, Lady ARMSTRONG is an American who is the widow of an English nobleman who made a substantial fortune in the United States. Since her husband's demise Lady ARMSTRONG, who is a personal friend of FRANCIS CARDINAL SPELLMAN and Bishop FULTON SHEEN, has spent a great deal of her time and money in assisting individuals such as Miss BENTLEY in becoming rehabilitated. Lady ARMSTRONG has been a friend of, and has assisted Miss BENTLEY, since shortly after her break with the Communists in November of 1945.

Dr. GROOPMAN advised that Miss BENTLEY was in a state of nervous shock as a result of the assault by WRIGHT, and that he was of the definite opinion that Miss BENTLEY should have nothing further to do with this individual. Lady ARMSTRONG was of the same opinion, but Miss BENTLEY, who was observed to be in a very highly emotional state, pointed out that she desired to return to her home in Madison if something could be done to definitely assure her that WRIGHT would not annoy her in the future.

On May 13, 1952, a conference was held in the office of USA MYLES LANE, at which were present AUSA ROY COHN, Miss BENTLEY, and an agent of this office. MYLES LANE advised that it was his intention to issue a subpoena for WRIGHT to call him into his office and obtain an explanation of all details concerning the assault, and to "lay down the law to WRIGHT." Miss BENTLEY volunteered that she would be able to call WRIGHT on the telephone and ask him to come to New York to pick her up on May 14, and at that time the subpoena could be served and he could be interrogated by Mr. LANE. This was done, and on May 14 Miss BENTLEY was taken to her home in Madison, Connecticut, and services of a locksmith were obtained in New Haven who changed all the locks on Miss BENTLEY's doors. Later that evening her automobile, which WRIGHT had driven to New York, was returned to her by WRIGHT.

Of possible significance in this entire episode is the fact that while Miss BENTLEY was in New York recovering, JOHN WRIGHT took it upon himself to go to Miss BENTLEY's insurance agent in Madison and obtain some forms which he wanted her to fill out indicating that the injury she suffered was the result of an accident she had in her residence which was covered by an insurance policy she maintained. These forms were sent by WRIGHT to Dr. GROOPMAN, but Dr. GROOPMAN stated that he of course would not be a party to an action of this kind. Miss BENTLEY stated that she would not press this claim, and is going to make some excuse to the insurance company as to why she is not pressing it.

The following is a summary of the conversation had between USA MYLES LANE and JOHN WRIGHT in connection with the subpoena issued for his appearance before the Grand Jury:

Mr. LANE advised WRIGHT that he in turn had been advised by Miss BENTLEY that WRIGHT was harassing her and that on one occasion he had used physical violence on her. Mr. LANE asked WRIGHT for his explanation, and WRIGHT in some detail advised that he commenced working for Miss BENTLEY in August, 1951, and acted in the capacity of chauffeur and caretaker for her. He related that a week or so ago he met Miss BENTLEY at New Haven at about 6:18 p.m. one evening, and although it was dinner time Miss BENTLEY insisted on having several drinks. WRIGHT related that in his past experience, and because of statements made on this occasion by Miss BENTLEY, he knew that she had been using barbiturates and other drugs which she has on prescription. He stated they consumed $13.50 worth of liquor in a respectable restaurant in New Haven. Upon leaving the restaurant, according to WRIGHT, Miss BENTLEY insisted on driving home, and in the course of this WRIGHT in the vicinity of Branford, Connecticut, became nervous over the manner in which Miss BENTLEY was operating the car and gradually brought the car over to the right hand side of the road and stopped. Thereafter he removed the keys and announced to Miss BENTLEY that he was going to drive the rest of the way. WRIGHT said Miss BENTLEY objected, and when he refused to return the keys to her she struck him across the face with her gloves, which were trimmed with buckles. WRIGHT stated that due possibly to the influence of the drinks he "blew his cork and hit her with a right cross." He said she fell out of the car and then he got out of the car, crossed around, and assisted her back in. WRIGHT stated that he then drove on to Madison.

TGS:RAA

USA LANE then cautioned WRIGHT and advised him of the penalty he might suffer for interfering with a Government witness, and he agreed that he would terminate any further relationship with Miss BENTLEY. LANE cautioned him about discussing this incident with any individuals, and WRIGHT advised that there was no one in Madison, Connecticut, that knew of this particular incident.

WRIGHT was left in possession of a Grand Jury subpoena which was marked on a continuing basis, and was cautioned by Mr. LANE that should he, WRIGHT, be reported as having any association with BENTLEY in the future, he would be recalled and brought before a Grand Jury to explain his actions.

The following information was ascertained by the New Haven Office concerning JOHN BURCHARD WRIGHT:

He was born December 12, 1897, at Worcester, Massachusetts. He was arrested by the Clinton, Connecticut, State Police on May 14, 1934. He has Connecticut State Police No. 1455FL. On this date he was arrested on two counts of breaking and entering. He was convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment which he served at the Haddam, Connecticut, County Jail.

On May 7, 1930, he was arrested by the Madison, Connecticut, Police Department (Madison PD No. 1554FP). He was arrested as a result of an indictment containing four counts charging him with (a) assault to kill; (b) aggravated assault; (c) plain assault; (d) breach of the peace. Counts 1 and 2 were dismissed, and on count 3 he was sentenced to serve a three months term and to pay a fine of $150. He received a suspended sentence on count 4.

During the conference that was held in the office of Dr. GROOPMAN, Lady ARMSTRONG advised that Miss BENTLEY had had some differences of opinion with her Pastor, although Lady ARMSTRONG did not comment further on this.

It has been ascertained through Reverend THOMAS E. HAYES, Pastor of St. Margaret's Parish, Madison, Connecticut, that local gossip had it that JOHN WRIGHT was actually more than a caretaker in his employment by ELIZABETH BENTLEY. Father HAYES stated that he called Miss BENTLEY on the telephone and advised her of the rumors he had heard, and she informed him that these rumors had no basis in fact and that WRIGHT was merely a caretaker. Miss BENTLEY became rather upset because Father HAYES would give any credence of gossip of this type, and as a result she even to this date does not feel too kindly towards Father HAYES.

The next day Miss BENTLEY requested WRIGHT to drive her to New York City, which he did. She then went to Dr. SAMUEL GROOPMAN, who has his office in the Latham Hotel which adjoins the Prince George Hotel on East 28th Street, where Miss BENTLEY lives while she is in New York City. According to both Dr. GROOPMAN and Miss BENTLEY, her condition was quite serious in view of the fact that as a result of the beating inflicted on her by WRIGHT several teeth on the left side of her face were loosened, two of her lower teeth had gone completely through the lower part of her face, and the cuts on the inside of her mouth had become infected.

Miss BENTLEY advised that she wanted very much to return to her home in Madison, but because of her fear of WRIGHT, wanted to have two agents assigned as bodyguards in order that WRIGHT might not continue to annoy her or inflict bodily harm upon her.

The Bureau was telephonically advised of the above facts, and at the suggestion of the Bureau these facts were made known to USA MYLES LANE. USA LANE advised that since AUSA ROY COHN had handled Miss BENTLEY in the past, he was going to assign this matter to him.

On May 12, 1952, AUSA ROY COHN advised that he had made an appointment with Miss BENTLEY's Doctor for that evening, and requested that an agent of this office familiar with the BENTLEY case accompany him. Again on the advice of the Bureau, an agent of this office did accompany COHN, but merely as an observer.

Upon arriving at the Doctor's office it was observed that not only Dr. GROOPMAN was in his suite, but Miss BENTLEY and Lady ARMSTRONG were also present. By way of explanation, Lady ARMSTRONG is an American who is the widow of an English nobleman who made a substantial fortune in the United States. Since her husband's demise Lady ARMSTRONG, who is a personal friend of FRANCIS CARDINAL SPELLMAN and Bishop FULTON SHEEN, has spent a great deal of her time and money in assisting individuals such as Miss BENTLEY in becoming rehabilitated. Lady ARMSTRONG has been a friend of, and has assisted Miss BENTLEY, since shortly after her break with the Communists in November of 1945.

Dr. GROOPMAN advised that Miss BENTLEY was in a state of nervous shock as a result of the assault by WRIGHT, and that he was of the definite opinion that Miss BENTLEY should have nothing further to do with this individual. Lady ARMSTRONG was of the same opinion, but Miss BENTLEY, who was observed to be in a very highly emotional state, pointed out that she desired to return to her home in Madison if something could be done to definitely assure her that WRIGHT would not annoy her in the future.

On May 13, 1952, a conference was held in the office of USA MYLES LANE, at which were present AUSA ROY COHN, Miss BENTLEY, and an agent of this office. MYLES LANE advised that it was his intention to issue a subpoena for WRIGHT to call him into his office and obtain an explanation of all details concerning the assault, and to "lay down the law to WRIGHT." Miss BENTLEY volunteered that she would be able to call WRIGHT on the telephone and ask him to come to New York to pick her up on May 14, and at that time the subpoena could be served and he could be interrogated by Mr. LANE. This was done, and on May 14 Miss BENTLEY was taken to her home in Madison, Connecticut, and services of a locksmith were obtained in New Haven who changed all the locks on Miss BENTLEY's doors. Later that evening her automobile, which WRIGHT had driven to New York, was returned to her by WRIGHT.

Of possible significance in this entire episode is the fact that while Miss BENTLEY was in New York recovering, JOHN WRIGHT took it upon himself to go to Miss BENTLEY's insurance agent in Madison and obtain some forms which he wanted her to fill out indicating that the injury she suffered was the result of an accident she had in her residence which was covered by an insurance policy she maintained. These forms were sent by WRIGHT to Dr. GROOPMAN, but Dr. GROOPMAN stated that he of course would not be a party to an action of this kind. Miss BENTLEY stated that she would not press this claim, and is going to make some excuse to the insurance company as to why she is not pressing it.

The following is a summary of the conversation had between USA MYLES LANE and JOHN WRIGHT in connection with the subpoena issued for his appearance before the Grand Jury:

Mr. LANE advised WRIGHT that he in turn had been advised by Miss BENTLEY that WRIGHT was harassing her and that on one occasion he had used physical violence on her. Mr. LANE asked WRIGHT for his explanation, and WRIGHT in some detail advised that he commenced working for Miss BENTLEY in August, 1951, and acted in the capacity of chauffeur and caretaker for her. He related that a week or so ago he met Miss BENTLEY at New Haven at about 6:18 p.m. one evening, and although it was dinner time Miss BENTLEY insisted on having several drinks. WRIGHT related that in his past experience, and because of statements made on this occasion by Miss BENTLEY, he knew that she had been using barbiturates and other drugs which she has on prescription. He stated they consumed $13.50 worth of liquor in a respectable restaurant in New Haven. Upon leaving the restaurant, according to WRIGHT, Miss BENTLEY insisted on driving home, and in the course of this WRIGHT in the vicinity of Branford, Connecticut, became nervous over the manner in which Miss BENTLEY was operating the car and gradually brought the car over to the right hand side of the road and stopped. Thereafter he removed the keys and announced to Miss BENTLEY that he was going to drive the rest of the way. WRIGHT said Miss BENTLEY objected, and when he refused to return the keys to her she struck him across the face with her gloves, which were trimmed with buckles. WRIGHT stated that due possibly to the influence of the drinks he "blew his cork and hit her with a right cross." He said she fell out of the car and then he got out of the car, crossed around, and assisted her back in. WRIGHT stated that he then drove on to Madison.

USA LANE then cautioned WRIGHT and advised him of the penalty he might suffer for interfering with a Government witness, and he agreed that he would terminate any further relationship with Miss BENTLEY. LANE cautioned him about discussing this incident with any individuals, and WRIGHT advised that there was no one in Madison, Connecticut, that knew of this particular incident.

WRIGHT was left in possession of a Grand Jury subpoena which was marked on a continuing basis, and was cautioned by Mr. LANE that should he, WRIGHT, be reported as having any association with BENTLEY in the future, he would be recalled and brought before a Grand Jury to explain his actions.

The following information was ascertained by the New Haven Office concerning JOHN BURGHARDT WRIGHT:

He was born December 12, 1897, at Worcester, Massachusetts. He was arrested by the Clinton, Connecticut, State Police on May 14, 1934. He had Connecticut State Police No. 1455FL. On this date he was arrested on two counts of breaking and entering. He was convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment which he served at the Hadam, Connecticut, County Jail.

On May 7, 1936, he was arrested by the Madison, Connecticut, Police Department (Madison PD No. 1554FP). He was arrested as a result of an indictment containing four counts charging him with (a) assault to kill; (b) aggravated assault; (c) plain assault; (d) breach of the peace. Counts 1 and 2 were dismissed, and on count 3 he was sentenced to serve a three month term and to pay a fine of $150. He received a pending sentence on count 4.

During the conference that was held in the office of Dr. GROOPMAN, Lady ARMSTRONG advised that Miss BENTLEY had had some differences of opinion with her Pastor, although Lady ARMSTRONG did not comment further on this.

It has been ascertained through Reverend THOMAS E. HAYES, Pastor of St. Margaret's Parish, Madison, Connecticut, that local gossip had it that JOHN WRIGHT was actually more than a caretaker in his employment by ELIZABETH BENTLEY. Father HAYES stated that he called Miss BENTLEY on the telephone and advised her of the rumors he had heard, and she informed him that these rumors had no basis in fact and that WRIGHT was merely a caretaker. Miss BENTLEY became rather upset because Father HAYES would give any credence of gossip of this type, and as a result she even to this date does not feel too kindly towards Father HAYES.

DATE: July 10, 1952

Attention: Assistant Director A. H. Belmont

Elizabeth Terrill Bentley

On July 3, 1952, AUSA ROY COHN advised this office that he recently had a long conversation with ELIZABETH BENTLEY in connection with her testimony in the forthcoming REMINGTON case. At that time BENTLEY pointed out to COHN that she was in rather desperate financial straits. She indicated that it would be necessary for her to obtain some money in some fashion or other in order to carry her through the Summer, or, failing that, she would have to obtain a position of some kind. COHN gathered from Miss BENTLEY's conversation that she needed approximately $1,000.

COHN stated that BENTLEY, of course, is one of the principal witnesses in the REMINGTON case, which is scheduled to be tried some time in the Fall of 1952, and he, COHN, is very anxious to keep her in a friendly frame of mind in order that her testimony might be used to its greatest advantage. COHN stated that he felt the best interests of the Government, particularly in the prosecution of the REMINGTON case, could be served by assisting Miss BENTLEY in any way that might be feasible.

COHN stated that he personally has assisted Miss BENTLEY in several instances. He pointed out one wherein Miss BENTLEY had consulted a tax expert in connection with the income tax she would have to pay on the proceeds of her book. This individual estimated that the tax would be near $6,000. COHN related that he then sent her to his personal accountant, who was able to reduce this figure to around $3,200. COHN stated that Miss BENTLEY did not have the money to pay this tax and he undertook to have her return filed and arrangements made to pay some of this tax on an instalment basis. He also stated that he was able to arrange for her to get $25 a day as an expert witness when she appeared before the Grand Jury, Southern District of New York, whereas normally she would have merely got the regular witness fee. COHN advised that there is no provision in the United States Attorney's office whereby any further financial assistance can be given to her.

EXPEDITE RECEIVING

On July 8, 1952, Miss BENTLEY contacted the New York Office and reiterated the conversation she had had with ROY COHN as outlined above. However, no mention was made by Miss BENTLEY of any specific amount of money.

On the morning of July 10th, Miss BENTLEY personally appeared at the New York Office. She advised that on July 9th she had had a long consultation with her doctor, as a result of which he informed her that it is his opinion that she should sell her house in Connecticut and move to New York City. His reason, she said, was that her health was such that she could not handle the work of maintaining this house. She related that she also had the added burden of obtaining gainful employment and that if she was successful in obtaining work in or near her home it would be impossible to work and maintain her residence. She also declared that she is faced with a severe financial problem, indicating that she owes approximately $600. This money includes doctor bills, household expenses, a past due fuel oil bill of $100, and other miscellaneous bills, all of which total up to about $600. She stated that she has only $150 in cash at the present time and has no hope of obtaining any additional funds unless she obtains employment. She stated that it is her present plan to put her house up for sale immediately but that knowing the real estate conditions in Madison, Connecticut, she feels quite certain she will not be able to finally dispose of the property for a month or two. In connection with her obtaining employment, she stated that she has been in contact with Bishop FULTON SHEEN and Lady ARM-STRONG, the latter a prominent Catholic laywoman, but they have so far been unable to assist her. She also has contacted other people who have been friendly to her but to date has been unable to secure assistance from them in obtaining employment.

Miss BENTLEY stated that with the REMINGTON trial coming in the Fall and possibly other appearances she will have to make before Grand Juries and Congressional committees, she cannot take a job where she would not be able to get time off to make these Court and other appearances on behalf of the Government. She did state, however, that she was extremely interested in obtaining some type of research work in the literary, teaching or business fields, all of which she claimed she is qualified to handle. She declared that if she could obtain such employment she feels that she could carry out her commitments with the Government as a witness and still maintain a job of this kind. She explained that if she were successful in getting employment in the research field she could handle Court or other appearances and still keep her job by working nights and weekends on her regular job.

As the Bureau knows, Miss BENTLEY has been a most valuable informant for a period of over six years, and during that time we have not paid her nor has she asked for any compensation. The exception to this, of course, is the $2,000 that was paid to her in the Spring of this year. As the Bureau recalls, this was in repayment of the $2,000 which she turned over to agents of the New York Office in November of 1945, which money she had received from her Soviet principal in connection with her espionage activities.

The Bureau's attention is also called to the unfortunate predicament Miss BENTLEY found herself in in connection with the assault on her by her caretaker, JOHN BURGHARDT WRIGHT, in May of 1952. This, accompanied by the fact that according to Miss BENTLEY's physician she is going through the change of life, probably accounts for some of the recent difficulty being encountered in handling this informant.

The agents who are familiar with Miss BENTLEY and who have been in contact with her over the years have gained the definite impression that Miss BENTLEY is rather improvident. It is not felt that any lump sum payment to Miss BENTLEY is wise at this time.

TGS:RAA
65-14603

All things considered, however, it is felt that because of Miss BENTLEY's testimony in the REMINGTON case and her possible appearances before Grand Juries and of her giving testimony in future Bureau cases, coupled with her limited possibility of steady employment, we do owe her some debt. In view of this, it is being suggested that the Bureau authorize a payment of $50 a week on a weekly basis for a period of approximately three months or until such time as disposition is made of the REMINGTON case.

DATE: July 16, 1952

FROM : W. A. BRANIGAN

SUBJECT: ELIZABETH TERRILL BENTLEY
CONFIDENTIAL SOURCEPURPOSE: RE: MURDER, L L I 21 BENTLEY T.

The New York Office has recommended that Elizabeth Bentley be paid $50 a week as a confidential source of their office. Bentley, who is pressed financially, has been a valuable informant and source of information over the past 6½ years, and it is anticipated she will continue to provide reliable and valuable information. A memorandum is attached, authorizing the New York Office to pay her $50 a week for a three-month period, effective July 15, 1952.

DETAILS:

In the attached memorandum dated July 10, 1952, from the New York Office, it was pointed out that Elizabeth Bentley has contacted both the New York Office and Assistant U. S. Attorney Roy Cohn regarding her rather desperate financial straits. She indicated it would be necessary for her to obtain money in some fashion in order to carry her through the summer, and she indicated she needed about $1,000.

Bentley is one of the principal witnesses in the Remington case which will be tried during the fall of 1952. As you know, she has frequently appeared in the past in connection with other trials and before Federal Grand Juries and Congressional Committees. This makes it difficult for her to obtain steady employment and at the same time make various appearances for the government.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Cohn has been able to give her some assistance, arranging to get her $25 a day as an expert witness, and helping her in adjusting, through his personal accountant, her income tax situation.

RECORDED - 75

JUL 24 1952

You will recall that Bentley has been contacted by our agents on almost a steady basis since November, 1945. During this period, she has never been reimbursed as an informant or source of information, and has never asked for any money with the exception that in the spring of this year, we made arrangements for her to get the $2,000 which she had received from her Soviet espionage superior and which she had turned over to us. It is contemplated that it will be necessary for our agents to continue contacting Elizabeth Bentley in view of the fact that we are continuing our efforts to identify certain unknown subjects with whom she had contact and because we are attempting to identify documents abstracted by Soviet agents in the government delivered to Bentley for transmittal to the Soviet Union. We also contact her periodically in order to determine whether she can furnish information concerning various persons who are of interest to us in our investigation of Soviet espionage.

RECOMMENDATION:

In view of the fact that Bentley has been a valuable informant and source of information over the past 6½ years, and it is anticipated she will continue to provide reliable and valuable information, there is attached a memorandum to the New York Office, authorizing that she be paid $50 a week for a period of three months, effective July 15, 1952.

SUBJECT: ELIZABETH BENTLEY

SAC Joseph Casper called from New Haven at approximately 4:45 pm, August 29, 1952, to advise that the Connecticut State Police, Westbrook Barracks, had contacted him telephonically to advise that Elizabeth Bentley is under arrest by the Connecticut State Police for hit and run driving. Apparently, Miss Bentley was taking someone to the railroad station and hit another car, causing very little damage. However, she did not stop. The owner of the other car made out a complaint, as a result of which she was arrested. According to the Police, originally she admitted that she had hit the other car but was in a hurry to get to the railroad station and, therefore, did not stop. She later denied to the Police that she had hit the other car. Miss Bentley got on the telephone after the police had called Casper and said that she had been driving from her home to the railroad station to put some friends on the train; that she had cut in rather sharply but did not know she had hit the other car; that no one had tooted the horn at her; and she had proceeded to the railroad station. She wanted Mr. Casper to take action on her behalf. He suggested she get an attorney, but she refused. She insisted that something be done for her, whereupon Casper advised her there was nothing he could do and that she should get an attorney.

Brufington

Li

Mr. Casper later talked to the Lieutenant of Police and advised him of Bentley's identity. The Lieutenant said he guessed the case would cause publicity; therefore, he was going to immediately contact Commissioner Hickey. He inquired whether Casper wanted to make any recommendation. Casper told him to handle the matter the same as he would any other case; that he had no recommendation whatsoever to make.

134-495-61

I told Casper to send a teletype with the details of this matter to the Bureau and to New York, and further, to call New York and advise them of this incident in order that New York could inform the United States Attorney, as Bentley is a potential witness in the Remington case to be re-tried in the near future. I told him to tell New York that as far as the Bureau is concerned, we could take no action to assist Bentley, and if the United States Attorney took any action, it was on his own initiative and responsibility.

At 5:30 p.m. Supervisor Tom Spencer called me from New York to advise that New Haven had furnished him this information and that he had furnished it in turn to Assistant United States Attorney Roy Cohn. Cohn stated that in view of the Remington case he thought some action should be taken. Spencer told him that the Bureau could not take any action and that any action that Cohn took would be on his own initiative and responsibility. Cohn thereupon called Commissioner Hickey and advised him that he felt two things should be done, first, that the matter should be kept quiet and out of the newspapers and second, that Hickey should arrange to get her released from jail as soon as possible.

At 6:00 p.m. Mr. Spencer advised that Mr. Cohn had again called him. Commissioner Hickey told Cohn that inasmuch as the property damage was only $25, Hickey had called the prosecuting official in Connecticut who had waived bond and consequently Bentley has been released. Her hearing is set for September 6. Hickey further advised Cohn that he would make every attempt to keep this matter quiet so that it would not reach the press.

Mr. Spencer stressed the fact that any action taken in this matter has been by Cohn and that Cohn fully understands that the Bureau had not and was not recommending any action. Mr. Spencer is sending in a letter with full details on this.

The handling of this matter by JES was proper. ✓

There follows a resume of two incidents which happened to Miss ELIZABETH BENTLEY—one on August 29, 1952, and one on August 30, 1952.

On the afternoon of August 29, 1952, SAC Joseph Casper of the New Haven Office called. He related that he had just received information from a Connecticut State Trooper that Miss BENTLEY had been arrested for leaving the scene of an accident and that she was presently incarcerated at the Westbrook Barracks, just east of Madison, Connecticut.

It appears that on the afternoon of August 29, 1952, Miss BENTLEY was driving Lady ARMSTRONG (whose identity is known to the Bureau) and two children from BENTLEY's home to the New Haven Railroad Station. En route she apparently became involved in a very slight accident with another automobile. BENTLEY claims that she did not believe she actually hit the automobile being driven by ROSARIO DERMARO, of 249 William Street, Middletown, Connecticut. In any event, DERMARO swore out a complaint against BENTLEY indicating that she had left the scene of an accident. BENTLEY's license number was radioed to the Connecticut State Troopers and Miss BENTLEY was apprehended while she was returning from New Haven to her home in Madison.

From the story related by the Connecticut State Trooper to SAC Casper, it appears that BENTLEY first admitted the facts and later denied them, and subsequently became somewhat difficult to handle. It also appears that Miss BENTLEY intimated in some fashion or other that she had been, or was, working for the FBI. It was on this latter statement that Miss BENTLEY was allowed to make a phone call to the New Haven Office.

This information was telephonically communicated to Assistant Director A. H. Belmont, who advised Mr. Casper to inform the New York Office that they were to immediately communicate with the United States Attorney, Southern District of New York, and advise him of the facts in this case, and to also indicate that this Bureau intended to take no action with regard to BENTLEY's arrest.

This information was immediately relayed to AUSA ROY COHN. COHN advised that he felt he should do something both for the purpose of getting BENTLEY out of jail and attempting to keep the story of her arrest out of the newspapers. He felt that this should be done in view of the fact that BENTLEY would appear as an important witness in the coming REMINGTON trial. Mr. COHN was again advised that this office intended to take no action in the matter but that if in his judgment he felt the United States Attorney's office should take some action, of course this office would not interfere.

Subsequently Mr. COHN called the New York Office and advised that he had gotten a call through to Commissioner EDWARD HICKEY of the Connecticut State Police and had informed the latter that he was most desirous of having two things accomplished--one, to have Miss BENTLEY immediately released from jail; and secondly, to curtail, if possible, any news reports of her arrest. Mr. COHN stated that he pointed out to Mr. HICKEY the value of Miss BENTLEY as a witness in previous cases as well as in the coming REMINGTON case. COHN advised that Commissioner HICKEY told him he would do what he could and would advise COHN of the results.

A subsequent call was received from Mr. COHN in which he stated that Commissioner HICKEY had informed him that the regulations concerning persons leaving the scene of an accident necessitated the posting of bond. However, in cases where the damage was slight and no personal injury was involved, the prosecuting attorney for the particular county involved could, in his discretion, release an individual without bond. Mr. HICKEY stated that he had contacted the appropriate prosecuting attorney and this individual had agreed to release Miss BENTLEY without bond. As a matter of fact, Mr. HICKEY stated that Miss BENTLEY had been released from the Westbrook Barracks at approximately 5:00 p.m. on August 29. Mr. HICKEY also told Mr. COHN that he would make every effort to see that no press release was made in connection with Miss BENTLEY's arrest.

Assistant Director Belmont was informed telephonically of the fact that COHN had been in contact with Commissioner HICKEY and the facts concerning Miss BENTLEY's release from jail.

On August 31, 1952, Miss BENTLEY called this office and advised she had been involved in a second accident on August 30, 1952. The details, obtained subsequently from Miss BENTLEY, are as follows:

On the afternoon of August 30, 1952, she drove to Clinton, Connecticut, and entered a parking lot in the rear of a shopping center. A truck owned and operated by WILLIAM HOFFMAN, 229 Dixwell Avenue, New Haven, Connecticut, had preceded Miss BENTLEY into the parking area and had entered a vacant parking space. Miss BENTLEY drove behind the truck and was momentarily stopped by traffic and a signal light when the HOFFMAN truck backed out of its space and struck the side of Miss BENTLEY's car. HOFFMAN told BENTLEY he was poor, had a sick wife and no liability insurance. At his suggestion she took her car to a nearby garage where damage was estimated at $150. The auto repair man questioned HOFFMAN's financial responsibility and suggested BENTLEY notify CARL WEISS, Chief of Police of Clinton, who is acquainted with Miss BENTLEY. WEISS came to the scene, reviewed the facts and advised Miss BENTLEY that he had no jurisdiction since the accident occurred on private property. Miss BENTLEY states her local insurance agent suggested that she place a lien or other legal encumbrance on HOFFMAN's truck since she does not have collision insurance and HOFFMAN seems to lack financial responsibility. Miss BENTLEY states she discussed the matter with JOHN KIDNEY, a local attorney, who appeared uncertain as to what action he could take.

NY 65-14603

On September 3, 1952, AUSA Roy Cohn advised he had communicated with TOM DODD, former USA in Hartford, Connecticut, and the latter was then conferring with BENTLEY.

On September 4, 1952, BENTLEY advised this office that after discussing her situations with DODD the latter had suggested that she leave matters in the hands of JOHN KIDNEY, known to him as a responsible and capable attorney.

The above information is being furnished for the information of the Bureau and New Haven.

Supervisor Tom McAndrews called from New York on the morning of September 22. He advised that on Sunday, September 21, Elizabeth Bentley had called the New York Office from her home in Madison, Connecticut. She stated she was ill and needed a physician. She said she wanted to get into New York because her doctor there was the only one who could relieve her condition. Two Agents from New York picked up Bentley and took her into New York and left her at the Prince George Hotel, after calling Dr. Samuel Groopman, her physician, at her request, and making arrangements for him to visit her.

McAndrews stated it was apparent to the Agents that Bentley had been drinking and it is the opinion of the Agents, based on past knowledge of Bentley and her conversations on September 21, that she may be slipping mentally.

As you know, Bentley is scheduled to be a witness in the Remington trial and, of course, is a potential witness in a number of cases presently being handled by the Bureau. McAndrews requested authority to advise Special Assistant to the Attorney General Roy Cohn, who has in the past been assigned to handle Bentley in her appearances before the courts in New York, and also Myles Lane, the U. S. Attorney, as to developments on September 21.

ACTION:

I told Supervisor McAndrews to go ahead and notify Cohn and Lane. I told him he should maintain contact with the U. S. Attorney's office to determine what, if anything, they do about this present situation of Bentley's, and to keep the Bureau advised of developments.

SUBJECT: GREGORY
ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: 9/26/52

Re NY letters to Bureau 7/10/52, 9/4/52 and Bulet
7/16/52.

As set out in New York letter of 7/10/52, ELIZABETH BENTLEY had incurred debts of approximately $600 and had requested assistance from AUSA COHN of the SDNY to help her pay these debts. Upon receipt of my letter 7/10/52, the Bureau authorized payment of $50 per week to Miss BENTLEY. These payments have been made regularly to her. However, it appears that she has been using this money merely for her current living expenses and has made no substantial effort to liquidate any of the above mentioned debts.

In this regard, it might be noted that Mr. COHN, in requesting that Bureau lend some financial assistance to Miss BENTLEY, left the impression in her mind that she was to receive a lump sum payment of approximately $1,000. As is indicated in my letter of July 10, it was considered unwise to make a lump sum payment to Miss BENTLEY inasmuch as it is felt that she was improvident and a lump sum payment would be quickly spent by her and she would again make demands on Mr. COHN and the Bureau for additional funds.

During the time that she has been receiving the $50 payments, Miss BENTLEY has been constantly referring to the supposed lump sum payment which she believed was to be forthcoming from Mr. COHN, and has, on various occasions, been in contact with Mr. COHN in an effort to obtain payment of this lump sum. No promise of any lump sum of any amount has been made to BENTLEY by this office.

On September 11, 1952, she had an interview with Mr. COHN and he requested her to submit to him an itemized list of her indebtedness. This was not forthcoming from Miss BENTLEY.

Following a series of events, the nature of which will be set forth below, Miss BENTLEY has been in New York City for the past several days. She again contacted Mr. COHN on 9/23/52 and again made demands of him that a lump sum payment be made to her in order that she might pay the aforementioned debts.

10 SEP 29 1952

Letter to Director
NY 65-14603

Following this conversation with Mr. COHN, Miss BENTLEY contacted Special Agent GALLAHER and advised him that Mr. COHN had indicated to her that the matter would be taken care of.

On 9/25/52, Mr. COHN contacted SA LESTER O. GALLAHER and asked if the Bureau could make arrangements for a lump sum payment of $200 to Miss BENTLEY together with advance of about $600 on the $50 weekly payments she has been receiving. He was advised that there was considerable doubt as to the possibility of this. On the same date Miss BENTLEY contacted SA GALLAHER, having been unable to reach Mr. COHN, and reiterated that she urgently needed the lump payment which she believes was promised to her by Mr. COHN in order that she could satisfy her creditors, and she felt that this, together with the $50 weekly payments, would give her the necessary peace of mind so that she would be a satisfactory witness in the forthcoming retrial of WILLIAM REMINGTON.

At that time she furnished the following itemized list of her indebtedness:

Jolly's Drug Store, Madison, Conn.	$216.00
Dr. SAMUEL GROOPMAN	230.00 (app.)
Socony Gas Co. for fuel, oil and gas	18.70
PRIMOFF & PRIMOFF, Accountants (income tax advice)	125.00
Electric Bill	18.00
Milk bill	4.16
Telephone bill	10.00 (or more)
Mortgage and Tax payments	51.00 (monthly)
	$672.86

In addition she advised she owes $3800 in income taxes, for which she has made no demands. She advised that so far she has been engaged for five lectures during the forthcoming winter for which she is to be paid $300 each. She stated that LADY ARMSTRONG, (whose identity is known to the Bureau) is attempting to obtain employment for her at Mt. St. Vincent's and Manhattanville, both of which are Catholic girls' schools. If she obtains this employment, the work will consist of a series of lectures at both schools which would require that she stay in New York City three or four days during each week and would permit her to return to her residence in Madison, Conn., over week-ends. She stated that as yet she has received no indication as to the amount of salary she would be paid for this work.

Letter to Director
NY 65-14603

As set forth in my letter of 9/4/52, Miss BENTLEY had been involved in two incidents involving the use of her automobile. The following subsequent events have occurred.

On 9/1/52, arrangements were made with Miss BENTLEY for an interview at her residence at Madison, Conn., to be had on 9/18/52, at which time Special Agents FRANCIS W. ZANGLE, LESTER O. GALLAHER and Colonel WILLIAM WOOD of CIA were to interview her. On 9/17/52, she telephonically advised SA GALLAHER that she had been in an automobile accident during the evening of 9/15/52, and had sustained a number of bruises, was knocked unconscious for a short time and that her car was a total wreck. She said that a "drunken driver" was coming down the middle of the road toward her and in order to avoid a collision she had swerved to the left and hit a boulder. She said she was removed from her car by three local men who assisted her in getting home and was later driven to the home of TOM DODD, former AUSA in Hartford, Conn., by one of these men. Mr. DODD has been assisting her in connection with the hit-run charges previously mentioned in reference letter of 9/4/52.

During the aforementioned telephone conversation, Miss BENTLEY requested that she be permitted to ride back to New York with the agents in order that she might contact her physician, Dr. SAMUEL GROOPMAN, for examination and treatment. During this conversation, she seemed somewhat hysterical, wept at least once and was somewhat incoherent as to what had occurred. She said she had not yet obtained medical attention and was beginning to feel emotional reaction to the shock of the accident. No commitments were made to her concerning the trip back to N. Y.

After this matter was discussed, it was decided to request her to come to New York by train, which she agreed to do, advising the agents that she would arrive at 9:35 a.m. on the 18th. - However, she did not appear at the agreed time and was contacted by telephone at her residence. She stated that she had overslept and had therefore missed her train. The agents thereupon drove to Madison with Colonel WOOD for the interview. At their arrival, she appeared highly nervous and was observed to be consuming a highball. She immediately launched into a discussion of her physical condition and said she felt she needed to be given a sedative and to be hospitalized for several days. Following this preliminary discussion of her problems, the agents and Col. WOOD proceeded with the interview as planned, during which period she appeared to calm down noticeably and seemed rational in her speech and recollection.

Upon conclusion of this part of the interview she again launched into a discussion of her troubles and reiterated that she would like to accompany the agents back to New York so that she might consult with her physician. It was suggested that she call her doctor and explain her condition and find out if it was advisable for her to travel and also if he would be available to treat her on her arrival in New York. She made this call to Dr. GROOPMAN, her physician in New York, and was advised that he would not be available that evening and strongly advised her against the trip.

She expressed herself as being in a quandary as to her next move, whereupon it was suggested that she contact a local physician. She attempted to contact one Dr. GREENBERG at Saybrook, Conn., unsuccessfully, and therefore tried to contact Dr. HYMAN BIRNBAUM of Madison who she said had previously treated her and whom she said she distrusted because he had given her medications which had an adverse effect on her. She further implied that he engaged in some nefarious practices and had a reputation for "fooling around with his women patients". It was suggested that she attempt to find some other local physician but she declined to call any local doctor listed in the phone book claiming they were "rhubarb and soda doctors" or would offer some other illogical reason for not calling them, although it was apparent that she had little or no actual knowledge of their ability or reputation.

Her attempts to contact Dr. BIRNBAUM by phone having been unsuccessful, she requested that she be driven to his residence. Dr. BIRNBAUM was found to be home but stated that it was his day off. However, he agreed that in view of the apparent emergency, he would treat Miss BENTLEY. He thereafter indicated that he had administered a sedative to her. After returning her to her residence, agents made their departure.

Letter to Director
NY 65-14603

About noon on 9/21/52, Miss BENTLEY contacted SA GALLAHER telephonically at his home and claimed that the sedative administered by Dr. BIRNBAUM had caused her to sleep until late Friday morning, following which she took a pill which he had prescribed for her and that shortly after this she blacked out and had not awakened until Sunday morning. She claimed she was quite ill and stated she could not eat because of a swollen condition of her face which had resulted from the accident. She asked if there were any doctors or nurses available who could take care of her. She said she felt she needed an antidote for the sedatives given her by Dr. BIRNBAUM.

She was advised that we knew of no one who could be made available to her in the New Haven area.

Following this conversation, her physician, Dr. GROOPMAN, of New York, was contacted and asked if he could make recommendations for treatment. He stated that since he did not know what drug had been administered he was not in a position to advise her and suggested that she recontact Dr. BIRNBAUM. He stated, however, that if she came to New York, he would be available to treat her in the afternoon or early evening.

Before a decision could be reached in this matter, Miss BENTLEY again contacted Agent GALLAHER and said she had called LADY ARMSTRONG who had advised her to come to New York where she could be treated by her own physician. She requested that agents of the New York Office go to Madison and get her. Following this conversation, it was decided that the only way to handle this problem was for the agents to proceed to Madison and bring Miss BENTLEY to New York. Upon their arrival at her residence, which involved a three hour trip through Sunday traffic, Miss BENTLEY accused the agents of being late.

Immediately preceding her departure, she began weeping and bemoaning the fact that her home state of Connecticut had been mistreating her and that she was going to fight for her rights. Any efforts on the part of the agents to ascertain in what way she was being mistreated were met with nebulous or unresponsive answers. Throughout the trip from Madison to New York City she was rambling and incoherent in her speech, making unreasonable accusations against Connecticut, Connecticut State Police, Dr. BIRNBAUM, JOHN WRIGHT (her former handyman with whom she was embroiled some time ago), engaged in backseat driving, weeping, sleeping, fingering a small crucifix, chain smoking and was quarrelsome and demanding throughout the trip. Upon arrival at the Prince George Hotel in New York she demanded that the agents enter the hotel with her, register her and call her doctor, which they refused to do.

She became argumentative and began to create a scene in the hotel lobby, but finally did call the doctor who refused to come to her because it was then about ten-thirty and he had expected her earlier. She then blamed the agents for making improper arrangements on her behalf, in spite of the fact that the doctor had previously agreed to see her on her arrival when he had discussed the matter with Agent GALLAHER. It was explained that her attitude reflected considerable lack of gratitude for the efforts expended in her behalf and she calmed down somewhat becoming apologetic and claiming that she was not blaming the agents for her predicament but began shifting the blame to others including AUSA COHN.

It was pointed out that this was also unreasonable inasmuch as Mr. COHN has in the past expended considerable effort in her behalf. Following this, she argued again regarding her registration but was led to the register and handled this matter herself with some insistence on the part of the agent.

Since Sunday evening, she has been in contact with agents on several occasions. On those occasions she appeared to be in somewhat better mental condition. However, she remains extremely talkative and inclined to dwell on her various problems to the exclusion of almost all other conversation. It has been noted, that on each occasion when she is engaged in discussing matters pertaining to her espionage activities she calms down perceptibly and carries on the interview in what appears to be a rational and logical manner. It appears to the agents who regularly contact Miss BENTLEY that, while some of her condition can be explained by the occasional excessive use of alcoholic beverages, she is becoming increasingly emotionally unstable even when not under the influence of liquor and is difficult to handle and secretive about her personal affairs until they become so involved she cannot cope with them, whereupon she makes demands upon the Bureau, the Department of Justice, and the individual agents to help her rectify her credibility as a witness in the various cases we have pending which involve her, may be seriously affected. It is felt further that her worry over her financial difficulties increases her state of tension and causes her to become more severely agitated than would be the case if such conditions were relieved.

In addition to the list of her indebtedness as set out above, Miss BENTLEY has indicated that she felt that the Department of Justice or the Bureau should assist her in obtaining and paying for another automobile, inasmuch as she feels that it is necessary for her to have transportation between her home and Madison a half mile away. Her wrecked car was a 1939 LASALLE and cannot be repaired partly because of unavailability of parts, she stated. No promises of any kind were made to her in this regard, on

As an example of the confused thinking of Miss BENTLEY at the present time, the following is set out.

During her telephone conversation of September 25th, she said she felt that AUSA COHN was partially responsible for her having wrecked her car, because she was on her way to see her attorney TOM DODD at the time and that Mr. COHN had obtained Mr. DODD's services for her.

It was pointed out to her that Mr. COHN had obtained Mr. DODD's services because of the fact that she has been accused, whether rightly or wrongly, of hit and run driving. She then launched into a diatribe against the Connecticut State Police who arrested her on this charge, this being an obsession with her since the date of her arrest. She has constantly reiterated that she has noted 8 counts of unspecified illegalities against her by the Conn. State Police and that if the charges against her are not dropped she will make things very uncomfortable for the arresting officers.

Letter to Director
NY 65-14603

During the telephone conversation with her on 9/25 that she indicated her belief that the Bureau of the Dept. of Justice should pay her Hotel bill at the Prince George where she has been staying. It was strongly indicated to her that this was entirely unreasonable and that the Bureau should not under any circumstances feel obligated in this instance to pay her hotel expenses, since her stay at the hotel was purely for her own personal convenience in order that she might obtain the medical care she desired.

During this same conversation, she indicated that if the lump sum payment referred to above was not forthcoming in the immediate future, she would feel disinclined to cooperate in future interviews or to make further appearances as a witness. Also during this conversation, she was requested to answer a couple of questions pertaining to Bureau business to which she said she did not care to cooperate. However, it was pointed out to her that if this attitude persisted, further payments of the weekly stipend of $50 would undoubtedly be discontinued. At that point, she agreed to furnish the requested information.

During the evening of 9/25/, Mr. COHN, contacted SA GALLAHER stating that he had had some conversation with Miss BENTLEY during the evening and had obtained information from her regarding EARL RUSSELL BROWDER, whose case was to be presented to the Grand Jury on 9/26/52. He requested that Miss BENTLEY appear before the Grand Jury of the SDNY to be questioned with regard to her knowledge of BROWDER's activities. He said that at first she had been somewhat uncooperative, but that she had finally consented to appear as requested and seemed glad to do so.

The above resume of facts regarding Miss BENTLEY is being presented for the Bureau's consideration and determination of whether or not any lump sum payment be made to her so that she might settle some or all of the debts listed above, and also whether or not the payments of $50 a week to her should continue. In th connection, it is pointed out that in addition to the REMINGTON and BROWDER cases mentioned herein, there are prospects that she may become a necessary witness in the JOSEPH KATZ case, as well as others which the Bureau presently has pending. It is pointed out also that Miss BENTLEY has been consulted during the past year on the average of 2 or 3 times a month, during which time she has been interviewed on numerous matters of which it was felt she would have knowledge.

Letter to Director
NY 65-14603

It is to be reiterated here, however, that during the times when the discussion pertains to her knowledge of the espionage activities with which she is acquainted, she seems to leave her troubles somewhat in the background and discuss these matters in apparently rational fashion. It is also to be pointed out that some of the apparent emotional confusion may be caused to some degree, by the menopause which she has informed the agents she is now undergoing.

Mr. COHN and USA, SDNY have been kept constantly apprised of the various episodes in which she has been involved and the appearance of emotional instability in order that these facts might be borne in mind at such times as Miss BENTLEY is being considered as a witness.

ESPIONAGE - R

Re NY letters to Bureau 7/10/52, 9/4/52 and Bulet
7/16/52.

As set out in New York letter of 7/10/52, ELIZABETH BENTLEY had incurred debts of approximately $600 and had requested assistance from AUSA COHN of the SDNY to help her pay these debts. Upon receipt of my letter 7/10/52, the Bureau authorized payment of $50 per week to Miss BENTLEY. These payments have been made regularly to her. However, it appears that she has been using this money merely for her current living expenses and has made no substantial effort to liquidate any of the above mentioned debts.

In this regard, it might be noted that Mr. COHN, in requesting that Bureau lend some financial assistance to Miss BENTLEY, left the impression in her mind that she was to receive a lump sum payment of approximately $1,000. As is indicated in my letter of July 10, it was considered unwise to make a lump sum payment to Miss BENTLEY inasmuch as it is felt that she was improvident and a lump sum payment would be quickly spent by her and she would again make demands on Mr. COHN and the Bureau for additional funds.

During the time that she has been receiving the $50 payments, Miss BENTLEY has been constantly referring to the supposed lump sum payment which she believed was to be forthcoming from Mr. COHN, and has, on various occasions, been in contact with Mr. COHN in an effort to obtain payment of this lump sum. No promise of any lump sum of any amount has been made to BENTLEY by this office.

On September 11, 1952, she had an interview with Mr. COHN and he requested her to submit to him an itemized list of her indebtedness. This was not forthcoming from Miss BENTLEY.

Following a series of events, the nature of which will be set forth below, Miss BENTLEY has been in New York City for the past several days. She again contacted Mr. COHN on 9/23/52 and again made demands of him that a lump sum payment be made to her in order that she might pay the aforementioned debts.

Letter to Director
NY 65-14603

Following this conversation with Mr. COHN, Miss BENTLEY contacted Special Agent GALLAHER and advised him that Mr. COHN had indicated to her that the matter would be taken care of.

On 9/25/52, Mr. COHN contacted SA LESTER O. GALLAHER and asked if the Bureau could make arrangements for a lump sum payment of $200 to Miss BENTLEY together with advance of about $600 on the $50 weekly payments she has been receiving. He was advised that there was considerable doubt as to the possibility of this. On the same date Miss BENTLEY contacted SA GALLAHER, having been unable to reach Mr. COHN, and reiterated that she urgently needed the lump payment which she believes was promised to her by Mr. COHN in order that she could satisfy her creditors, and she felt that this, together with the $50 weekly payments, would give her the necessary peace of mind so that she would be a satisfactory witness in the forthcoming retrial of WILLIAM REMINGTON.

At that time she furnished the following itemized list of her indebtedness:

Jolly's Drug Store, Madison, Conn.	$216.00
Dr. SAMUEL GROOPMAN	230.00 (app.)
Socony Gas Co. for fuel, oil and gas	18.70
PRIMOFF & PRIMOFF, Accountants (income tax advice)	125.00
Electric Bill	18.00
Milk bill	4.16
Telephone bill	10.00 (or more)
Mortgage and Tax payments	51.00 (monthly)
	$672.86

In addition she advised she owes $3800 in income taxes, for which she has made no demands. She advised that so far she has been engaged for five lectures during the forthcoming winter for which she is to be paid $300 each. She stated that LADY ARMSTRONG, (whose identity is known to the Bureau) is attempting to obtain employment for her at Mt. St. Vincent's and Manhattanville, both of which are Catholic girls' schools. If she obtains this employment, the work will consist of a series of lectures at both schools which would require that she stay in New York City three or four days during each week and would permit her to return to her residence in Madison, Conn., over week-ends. She stated that as yet she has received no indication as to the amount of salary she would be paid for this work.

Letter to Director

NY 65-14603

As set forth in my letter of 9/4/52, Miss BENTLEY had been involved in two incidents involving the use of her automobile. The following subsequent events have occurred.

On 9/1/52, arrangements were made with Miss BENTLEY for an interview at her residence at Madison, Conn., to be had on 9/18/52, at which time Special Agents FRANCIS W. ZANGLE, LESTER O. GALLAHER and Colonel WILLIAM WOOD of CIA were to interview her. On 9/17/52, she telephonically advised SA GALLAHER that she had been in an automobile accident during the evening of 9/15/52, and had sustained a number of bruises, was knocked unconscious for a short time and that her car was a total wreck. She said that a "drunken driver" was coming down the middle of the road toward her and in order to avoid a collision she had swerved to the left and hit a boulder. She said she was removed from her car by three local men who assisted her in getting home and was later driven to the home of TOM DODD, former USA in Hartford, Conn., by one of these men. Mr. DODD has been assisting her in connection with the hit-run charges previously mentioned in reference letter of 9/4/52.

During the aforementioned telephone conversation, Miss BENTLEY requested that she be permitted to ride back to New York with the agents in order that she might contact her physician, Dr. SAMUEL GROOPMAN, for examination and treatment. During this conversation, she seemed somewhat hysterical, wept at least once and was somewhat incoherent as to what had occurred. She said she had not yet obtained medical attention and was beginning to feel emotional reaction to the shock of the accident. No commitments were made to her concerning the trip back to N. Y.

After this matter was discussed, it was decided to request her to come to New York by train, which she agreed to do, advising the agents that she would arrive at 9:35 a.m. on the 18th. However, she did not appear at the agreed time and was contacted by telephone at her residence. She stated that she had overslept and had therefore missed her train. The agents thereupon drove to Madison with Colonel WOOD for the interview. At their arrival, she appeared highly nervous and was observed to be consuming a highball. She immediately launched into a discussion of her physical condition and said she felt she needed to be given a sedative and to be hospitalized for several days. Following this preliminary discussion of her problems, the agents and Col. WOOD proceeded with the interview as planned, during which period she appeared to calm down noticeably and seemed rational in her speech and recollection.

Upon conclusion of this part of the interview she again launched into a discussion of her troubles and reiterated that she would like to accompany the agents back to New York so that she might consult with her physician. It was suggested that she call her doctor and explain her condition and find out if it was advisable for her to travel and also if he would be available to treat her on her arrival in New York. She made this call to Dr. GROOPMAN, her physician in New York, and was advised that he would not be available that evening and strongly advised her against the trip.

She expressed herself as being in a quandary as to her next move, whereupon it was suggested that she contact a local physician. She attempted to contact one Dr. GREENBERG at Saybrook, Conn., unsuccessfully, and therefore tried to contact Dr. HYMAN BIRNBAUM of Madison who, she said had previously treated her and whom she said she distrusted because he had given her medications which had an adverse effect on her. She further implied that he engaged in some nefarious practices and had a reputation for "fooling around with his women patients". It was suggested that she attempt to find some other local physician but she declined to call any local doctor listed in the phone book claiming they were "rhubarb and soda doctors" or would offer some other illogical reason for not calling them, although it was apparent that she had little or no actual knowledge of their ability or reputation.

Her attempts to contact Dr. BIRNBAUM by phone having been unsuccessful, she requested that she be driven to his residence. Dr. BIRNBAUM was found to be home but stated that it was his day off. However, he agreed that in view of the apparent emergency, he would treat Miss BENTLEY. He thereafter indicated that he had administered a sedative to her. After returning her to her residence, agents made their departure.

Letter to Director
NY 65-14603

About noon on 9/21/52, Miss BENTLEY contacted SA GALLAHER telephonically at his home and claimed that the sedative administered by Dr. BIRNBAUM had caused her to sleep until late Friday morning, following which she took a pill which he had prescribed for her and that shortly after this she blacked out and had not awakened until Sunday morning. She claimed she was quite ill and stated she could not eat because of a swollen condition of her face which had resulted from the accident. She asked if there were any doctors or nurses available who could take care of her. She said she felt she needed an antidote for the sedatives given her by Dr. BIRNBAUM.

She was advised that we knew of no one who could be made available to her in the New Haven area.

Following this conversation, her physician, Dr. GROOPMAN, of New York, was contacted and asked if he could make recommendations for treatment. He stated that since he did not know what drug had been administered he was not in a position to advise her and suggested that she recontact Dr. BIRNBAUM. He stated, however, that if she came to New York, he would be available to treat her in the afternoon or early evening.

Before a decision could be reached in this matter, Miss BENTLEY again contacted Agent GALLAHER and said she had called LADY ARMSTRONG who had advised her to come to New York where she could be treated by her own physician. She requested that agents of the New York Office go to Madison and get her. Supervisor Tom McAndrews called from New York on the afternoon of September 26. He stated that Bentley was then in the office of Special Assistant to the Attorney General Roy Cohn. Bentley has stated that she wrecked her automobile during the instant week and that she is without funds. She has demanded that transportation be afforded her to her home in Connecticut and also transportation to New York and back when she is needed by the Government and also that an automobile be made available to her when it is necessary that she do shopping and other errands. She stated that she will not leave Cohn's office until he agrees to do this. B/B

Cohn called the New York Office and wanted to know whether the New York Office would afford Bentley transportation to Connecticut and thereafter have an Agent call on her at weekly intervals to see if they can help her with her shopping and such. He was advised by the New York Office that we definitely would not do this. He then wanted to know if she was placed on a train to New Haven whether the Bureau would have Agents meet her and take her to her home in Madison, Connecticut, which is about ten miles from New Haven. McAndrews wanted to know if it was satisfactory for the New York Office to do this.

McAndrews pointed out that the Bureau has authorized payment in the sum of $450.00 to Bentley to help her in her current financial difficulties and in this connection this sum is being paid to her in nine weekly payments of $50.00 each. There are still three weeks to run on these payments.

OBSERVATIONS

Bentley is, of course, a necessary witness for the Government in the case of Earl and Irene Browder which is presently being handled by Cohn in New York. She will also be a necessary witness for the Government in the case of William Remington. She is also a potential witness in 184-735-67 connection with certain espionage cases which are being handled by the Bureau. During recent weeks she has become increasingly difficult to handle, has been on several drinking sprees, has become involved in an automobile accident and fights. It is the opinion of the Agents handling her that she is probably cracking up emotionally.

ACTION

Mr. Hennrich authorized McAndrews to tell Cohn that we would arrange to have Agents meet Bentley and take her from New Haven to her home in Madison. He told McAndrews to tell Cohn that we could not and would not act as a nursemaid to Bentley. He told him to suggest to Cohn that if Bentley is destitute that it might be that the USA could pay her consultant's fee or expert witness' fee in connection with her appearance in New York City.

McAndrews later called and advised that Cohn had arranged, from a source whose identity he did not disclose, to obtain sufficient money for her to rent an automobile and that she was going to rent a car to drive back home to Connecticut and to use for an unspecified period. The Agents took Bentley to midtown Manhattan where she desired to go and where she said she was going to rent a car.

I talked with ASAC Whelan in New York on October 6, 1952, regarding New York letter dated September 26, 1952, entitled "Gregory; Espionage - R." I pointed out that while the New York Office has set forth a resume of some of the problems which have arisen in connection with the handling of the informant, Elizabeth T. Bentley, they have not made any specific recommendations, although they posed to the Bureau the problem as to whether continuation should be made of the payment of $50. a week to Bentley or whether a lump sum payment should be made to her, at the same time emphasizing her value as a witness in the Remington, Browder, Katz, and other cases.

I instructed Mr. Whelan to have someone bring the information as to Bentley up to date and to analyze her value as a witness. I pointed out that the NYO has the responsibility of handling Bentley and controlling her. I asked that specific recommendations be made by the NYO as to our financial handling of Bentley in the future and also as to the control of her activities so that she may be available as a witness in cases where her presence is necessary.

ACTION:

Upon the receipt of New York's memorandum, it will be carefully analyzed and appropriate recommendations will be made.

SUBJECT: GREGORY
ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: 10/8/52

ReNY let 9/26/52 and telephone call between Inspector Carl Hennrich of the Bureau and ASAC William M. Whelan on 10/7/52.

The $50 weekly payment to ELIZABETH BENTLEY, which the Bureau has authorized, expires 10/15/52. Miss BENTLEY has advised that her creditors are making a definite effort to collect the money which she owes. An itemized list of her indebtedness is set forth on page two of referenced New York letter.

Insofar as this office is concerned, it is believed that two alternative suggestions can be made to assist Miss BENTLEY in a financial way in order to assure that she will be a favorable government witness in the coming REMINGTON retrial and other matters in which the Bureau may desire to utilize her services. It is felt that if the Bureau could allocate $500 towards the payment of her bill with Jolly's Drug Store at Madison, Conn., Dr. SAMUEL GROOPMAN, and PRIMOFF & PRIMOFF, Accountants, and continue for another three-month period to pay her a weekly sum of $50, this would be one way of getting her out of her financial difficulties. Another possibility is suggested in that we increase her payment from $50 to $100 a week for a period of three months with a definite understanding with Miss BENTLEY that at least $50 be paid to her various creditors.

Due to Miss BENTLEY's improvidence, it is felt that if the Bureau sees fit to pay her the sum of $500, that this money should be given to her only upon her promise to tender to this Bureau a receipted bill from the individuals to whom she is indebted. Likewise, if her payment is increased from $50 to $100 a week, it is felt Miss BENTLEY should furnish this office a financial statement at the end of each month showing exactly how much of the $100 weekly payment has been used to decrease her indebtedness.

This office is well aware of the economy measures which must be enforced by everyone in the Bureau at this time, and it is with great reluctance that the above recommendations are made, which will affect in some way the Bureau's financial situation. However, in view of the strict circumstances surrounding this informant, there does not appear to be any other way to handle this matter at least at the present time.

The Bureau will authorize you to continue the $50.00 a week payments to Elizabeth Bentley, effective October 15, 1952, for a period not to exceed three months. Thereafter you should submit your recommendation relative to continuing these payments and you should analyze Bentley's future value as a source of information.

The Bureau is also authorizing you to make a $500.00 lump sum payment to Elizabeth Bentley for past services. You should insure that this money is utilized by Bentley in handling her current indebtedness which is causing her serious financial difficulties at the present time.

It is incumbent upon your office to exercise control of Elizabeth Bentley. It would appear that we have experienced more difficulty with her since she became a paid informant than during the period she was volunteering her cooperation. You should make sure that she understands we are not going to continue indefinitely to put up with her running to us for assistance every time she finds herself in financial or other difficulties. You should inform her that any further trouble may necessitate our terminating any further weekly payments to her.

PURPOSE

To recommend that the New York Office be authorized to continue the $50.00 a week payments to Elizabeth Bentley for a period not to exceed three months. It is also recommended that a $500.00 lump sum payment be made to Elizabeth Bentley for past services which will relieve her current indebtedness which is causing her considerable worry and is jeopardizing our use of her as a source of information.

DETAILS

The New York Office has had considerable difficulty with Bentley recently. She has been involved in two automobile accidents. She has become increasingly neurotic, hard to handle, and is drinking heavily.

On the other hand you will recall that Bentley has been contacted by our agents on an almost steady basis since November, 1945. Until July of 1952, she had never been reimbursed as an informant or source of information and had never asked for any money with the exception that in the spring of this year we made arrangements for her to get the $2,000.00 which she had received from her Soviet Espionage superior and which she had turned over to us. Starting on July 15, 1952, we began paying her $50.00 a week, and we are utilizing her as a source of information on a wide variety of matters. Bentley is one of the principal witnesses in the Remington case which will be tried this fall. We are currently making efforts to return Joseph Katz to the United States and any prosecution of Katz would be based to a large extent on Bentley's testimony. If Katz were cooperative, his testimony and Bentley's testimony might enable a number of important prosecutions in the Nathan Gregory Silvermaster group.

Bentley is heavily indebted at the present time, and the New York Office has recommended a payment to her in the sum of $500.00 for past services, or in the alternative raising the weekly amount to her to the sum of $100.00 a week. They feel that in this way she will be relieved of some of her financial worries which apparently are causing in part the neurotic attitude on her part.

RECOMMENDATION

There is attached for your approval a memorandum to the New York Office authorizing them to continue the weekly payments of $50.00 to Bentley for a period of three months. Authorization to pay her $500.00 for past services to be used by her in reducing her indebtedness is also being made. The New York Office is being informed that it is incumbent upon them to control Bentley and to reach an understanding with her that we are not going to continue to get her out of financial difficulties.

ADDENDUM:

The question has been raised as to whether we would be able to justify our weekly payments of $50.00 to Elizabeth Bentley if we were forced to reveal such payments in a court proceeding in the Remington case or other cases. It is felt our position can be justified as Bentley has provided and continues to provide important information on a number of cases, and her work for us takes up a considerable amount of her time as does her appearances before Federal Grand Juries and other legal proceedings.

Lt. FRANCIS MANGAN, Commanding Officer, Westbrook Barracks, Connecticut State Police, advised that the case of evasion of responsibility against the above individual came up in the Westbrook Court on November 8, 1952, at which time the charge was changed to violation of the road. Lt. MANGAN advised that ELIZABETH BENTLEY was found guilty of failure to grant one-half of the highway. She pleaded nolo contendere, was fined $9.00, which fine she paid.

Of interest to both the Bureau and New York, Lt. MANGAN furnished the following information on September 23, 1952, concerning the above individual. He stated that ELIZABETH BENTLEY was involved in another accident at 5:15 p.m. on September 15, 1952, on Route 79, just south of the rotary at North Madison, Conn. He related that BENTLEY ran off the road and caused considerable damage to her car which is now at Woody's Garage, Route 40, North Guilford, Conn.

No other car or person was involved, according to Lt. MANGAN. He stated that the accident was reported to the Madison, Conn., Police Department by an unknown man. The Madison Police Department conducted an investigation, made no arrests, and advised ELIZABETH BENTLEY's car was damaged beyond repair.

Rebulet authorized payment of $50 a week to ELIZABETH BENTLEY effective 10/15/52, for a period not to exceed three months. This letter also authorized payment of a lump sum of $500 to Miss BENTLEY. These payments have been made and proper receipts obtained.

In the last three months there has been a marked improvement in Miss BENTLEY's temperament and she has appeared to be much more stable in her demeanor. Also, since the date of my letter of 9/26/52 Miss BENTLEY has advised she has obtained temporary employment doing research work for ALFRED KOHLBERG, 1 West 37 Street, New York City. However, inasmuch as this employment involves her staying in a hotel during the week and travel back and forth to her residence at Madison, Connecticut over the week-end, it is doubtful she is netting much more than living expenses from this job.

On 1/15/53, Miss BENTLEY appeared as a witness in the trial of WILLIAM REMINGTON in the Southern District of New York and conducted herself in a creditable fashion.

Inasmuch as it is believed that the services of Miss BENTLEY will be required in any possible action taken on JOSEPH KATZ and numerous other cases in which she is involved, it is recommended that the $50 weekly payments be continued for another three-month period, at the end of which her financial situation will be reviewed with her and the Bureau advised concerning the desirability of continuing these payments.

had accepted a teaching position at the College of the Sacred Heart, Grand Coteau, La., for which place she would depart within the next few days, and from which she intended to return to her home in Madison, Connecticut, at the end of the semester, about June 15, 1953.

Referenced letter pointed out the Bureau might desire to have Bentley review certain State Department material at Grand Coteau, La., or might desire to postpone such review until Bentley returns to her home at the end of the semester.

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated January 29, 1953, instructing WFO to contact Mr. John W. Ford, Department of State, for the purpose of obtaining the material to be displayed to Bentley.

In the event that WFO has already obtained the material in question, it would appear desirable that it be displayed promptly to Bentley at Grand Coteau, La. Further, even though this material has not yet been obtained from the State Department, the Bureau has no objection to its being obtained and promptly displayed to Bentley at Grand Coteau, La., providing WFO has no reason for not doing this.

WFO requested to advise the status of this matter and its progress with respect thereto.

Re New York letter 1/16/53 under the former caption

On her return from a lecture trip to Texas Miss E. T. BENTLEY advised today she was accepting a position to teach in the Romance Language Department of the College of the Sacred Heart in Grand Coteau, Louisiana. She intends to clear up some of her business and personal affairs in New York and Madison, Connecticut within the next few days and proceed immediately to Grand Coteau, La.

BENTLEY said Grand Coteau is near Lafayette, Louisiana, where she boarded the plane to come back to New York.

Miss BENTLEY said she will not sell her home in Madison, but will only close it up as she intends to return here at the end of the semester about 6/15/53. The College of the Sacred Heart is run by a religious order of nuns called Mothers of the Sacred Heart. Miss BENTLEY knows Mother LAPEYRE who is in charge of the college and she stopped off at Grand Coteau on the way back from Texas to see Mother LAPEYRE.

Mother LAPEYRE offered her a teaching position for the remainder of the current semester with the chance of remaining permanently on the staff if events this semester work out to their mutual satisfaction. BENTLEY said she intended to return to Madison, Conn. and New York City in June whether or not an agreement is reached for her to teach in the next school year at the college.

No mention was made of the status of future payments to Miss BENTLEY and she did not bring it up. It is requested that the Bureau disregard for the present the remarks concerning payments in New York letter of 1/16/53.

Rebulet dated 1/29/53 entitled, "MAURICE HYMAN HALPERIN" contained instructions to arrange to have BENTLEY view some material in the presence of an agent. In an earlier Washington Field letter of 10/21/52 it was estimated the project would take approximately 48 hours of actual perusal. In view of BENTLEY'S impending departure for Grand Coteau, La., where it is noted the school term has already begun, and because the material has not yet been obtained by Washington Field office, it is suggested that the Bureau may wish to make arrangements to have the material shown to BENTLEY in Grand Coteau, La. or to wait until the current school term is over and BENTLEY returns to the East.

SYNOPSIS

In the attached letter dated March 9, 1953, from John B. Wright, former caretaker for Bentley, he complains that during a conference (May 14, 1952) with United States Attorney Lane, Armand Chankalian, Administrative Assistant to U. S. Attorney, and a Special Agent of the FBI, the Agent was rude to him. The Bureau's files reflect Bentley had on May 7, 1952, advised the New York Office that on April 30, 1952, she had been assaulted by her handy man, Wright. Bentley received a rather serious beating from Wright. Upon telephonic instructions from the Bureau, the New York Office made these facts known to United States Attorney Lane and on May 14, 1952, Wright was subpoenaed to Lane's office and explained to Lane that on the occasion of striking Bentley, he had had some drinks before driving home and perhaps was influenced because of this. Lane cautioned Wright and advised him of the penalty he might suffer for interfering with a Government witness and he agreed he would terminate any further relationship with Bentley. Wright was left in possession of a grand jury subpoena marked on a continuing basis and was told if he interfered with Bentley in the future he would be recalled and brought before a grand jury to explain his actions. In a memorandum from the New York Office dated May 16, 1952, which is attached, the details concerning this matter were set forth. Special Agent John J. Danahy, who was present at the conference, states he was introduced to Wright by U. S. Attorney Lane, who did all the talking at the conference. Danahy states he at no time made any remarks to Wright of any kind. Wright has a criminal record, having been arrested by Connecticut State Police on May 14, 1934, for breaking and entering, and received six months' imprisonment; arrested May 7, 1936, by Police Department, Madison, Connecticut, on aggravated assault and received three months' imprisonment. A doctor who examined Wright described him as below average mentally, and a braggart and an adolescent type.

DETAILS

There is attached a memorandum from John P. Wright of Madison, Connecticut, dated March 9, 1953, with which he enclosed a Photostat of a grand jury subpoena dated May 12, 1952, calling for his appearance on May 14, 1952, and indicating the subpoena was to remain in effect. In his letter, Wright complains that when subpoenaed there had been a conference attended by himself, by Myles J. Lane, United States Attorney, by a Special Agent of the FBI, and by Armand Chankalian, whom Wright claims was introduced to him as foreman of the grand jury but who at that time was actually an Administrative Assistant to the U. S. Attorney in the Southern District of New York.

Wright states that the Special Agent of the FBI refused to identify himself but showed his credentials, was exceedingly rude and repeatedly whispered to Lane. Wright in his letter states he feels the Agent should be given a lesson or two in proper behavior and manners and were he an employee of Wright's, he would be fired instantly. The facts behind this instance are as follows:

On May 7, 1952, Elizabeth Bentley advised the New York Office that on April 30, 1952, she had been assaulted by her handy man, John Burghardt Wright. Her doctor described her condition as quite serious due to this beating. Several teeth on the left side of her face were loosened and there were cuts on the inside of her mouth which had become infected. Upon telephonic instructions from the Bureau, the

New York Office made these facts known to United States Attorney Lane who assigned the matter to Assistant United States Attorney Roy Cohn for handling on the basis that Bentley was a very important witness in a number of pending cases which were scheduled for trial or coming before a Federal Grand Jury, including the Remington case. It was also noted that Bentley had been an important witness in the Julius Rosenberg case which was still before the appellate court. On May 14, 1952, Wright was subpoenaed before the Federal Grand Jury but was brought instead to United States Attorney Lane's office where he was interviewed and Wright during the conference admitted that he had struck Bentley. Lane informed Wright of the penalty he could receive for interfering with a Government witness and Wright agreed he would terminate any further relationship with Miss Bentley. He was left with a grand jury subpoena which was marked on a continuing basis and was cautioned that any further association with Bentley would result in his being recalled and brought before a Federal Grand Jury to explain his actions.

In the attached memorandum dated May 16, 1952, from the New York Office, it is indicated that Wright was born December 18, 1897, at Worcester, Massachusetts. He was arrested by the Connecticut State Police on May 12, 1934, and was convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment. He was arrested on May 7, 1938, by the Police Department at Madison, Connecticut, for aggravated assault and was later sentenced to serve three months in prison. Dr. Samuel Groopman, Bentley's physician, who examined Wright on one occasion, commented that Wright was below average mentally, a braggart and an adolescent type. He felt that Wright intended physical harm to Bentley and there was no question in his mind that Bentley was afraid of Wright. It would appear doubtful from Dr. Groopman's description of Wright that he actually wrote the letter which has now been received at the Bureau and it would appear more likely that someone prepared this letter for him. It is also to be noted that he has waited almost a year to complain about the actions of our Agent. In view of the allegations concerning a Special Agent, Mr. Hennrich contacted ASAC Whelan at New York, and he advised on March 16, 1958, that the Agent at the conference was Special Agent John J. Danahy (EOD - 7-27-42, GS-13, $8,360.00, NYFO). Danahy was present at the conference at the specific request of U. S. Attorney Lane. Danahy states the conference was of short duration, about thirty minutes in all, with Lane doing all the talking. Danahy was introduced to Wright by Lane, his name being given. Danahy did not exhibit any credentials as alleged by Wright. Danahy sat ten to fifteen feet from Lane and did not whisper to Lane, and he was not at any time rude to Wright, Lane having done all the talking.

Danahy states Armand Chankalian, then an Administrative Assistant to Lane, came in during the conference and listened to what took place but did not take an active part in the conference.

In view of the fact that Wright admitted his assault on Bentley and has a criminal record, no action in connection with this matter would appear warranted, and it is not felt necessary to acknowledge Wright's letter.

He was arrested on May 7, 1938, by the Police Department at Madison, Connecticut, for aggravated assault and was later sentenced to serve three months in prison. Dr. Samuel Groopman, Bentley's physician, who examined Wright on one occasion, commented that Wright was below average mentally, a braggart and an adolescent type. He felt that Wright intended physical harm to Bentley and there was no question in his mind that Bentley was afraid of Wright. It would appear doubtful from Dr. Groopman's description of Wright that he actually wrote the letter which has now been received at the Bureau and it would appear more likely that someone prepared this letter for him. It is also to be noted that he has waited almost a year to complain about the actions of our Agent. In view of the allegations concerning a Special Agent, Mr. Hennrich contacted ASAC Whelan at New York, and he advised on March 16, 1953, that the Agent at the conference was Special Agent John J. Danahy (EOD - 7-27-42, GS-13, $8,360.00, NYFO). Danahy was present at the conference at the specific request of U. S. Attorney Lane. Danahy states the conference was of short duration, about thirty minutes in all, with Lane doing all the talking. Danahy was introduced to Wright by Lane, his name being given. Danahy did not exhibit any credentials as alleged by Wright. Danahy sat ten to fifteen feet from Lane and did not whisper to Lane, and he was not at any time rude to Wright, Lane having done all the talking.

Danahy states Armand Chankalian, then an Administrative Assistant to Lane, came in during the conference and listened to what took place but did not take an active part in the conference.

In view of the fact that Wright admitted his assault on Bentley and has a criminal record, no action in connection with this matter would appear warranted, and it is not felt necessary to acknowledge Wright's letter.

Bureau files reflect that on 5-7-52 Elizabeth Bentley advised the New York Office that on 4-30-52 she had been assaulted by her handyman, John Burghardt Wright. Miss Bentley's condition was quite serious as a result of the beating inflicted on her by Wright. Upon telephonic instructions from the Bureau, the New York Office made these facts known to USA Myles Lane who assigned the matter to AUSA Roy Cohn. On 5-13-52 a conference was held in the office of USA Lane at which were present AUSA Cohn, Miss Bentley, and an agent of the New York Office. Wright was subpoenaed to USA Lane's office on 5-14-52 and explained to Lane that on the occasion of striking Miss Bentley he had had some drinks before driving her home and perhaps was influenced because of this. USA Lane then cautioned Wright and advised him of the penalty he might suffer for interfering with a Government witness, and he agreed that he would terminate any further relationship with Miss Bentley. Wright was left in possession of a Grand Jury subpoena which was marked on a continuing basis, and was cautioned by Lane that he, Wright, be reported as having any association with Bentley in the future, he would be recalled and brought before a Grand Jury to explain his actions. -- Attached is a memorandum from the New York Office dated 5-16-52 setting forth the above information. It will be noted that this memorandum bears the initials of TGS who may be identical with Special Agent Thomas G. Spencer.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

At a meeting indicated in the enclosed photostat,
were present:

Myles J. Lane; A Special Agent of the F.B.I.;
Armand Chankalian and myself, John B. Wright.

Armand Chankalian was introduced to me as foreman of a grand jury.

The Special Agent of the F.B.I. refused to identify himself to me. He showed us credentials, was exceedingly rude, and repeatedly whispered to Lane.

The meeting was not designed to hear information of section 1503, Title 18 USC as indicated on the subpoena.

It was designed as a "scare meeting" because of physical violence used by me upon one Elizabeth T. Bentley, a Communist and dangerous character.

Lane, apparently is no longer in the employ of the U.S. government. However, if your special agent who attended the meeting still is in your employ - he should be given a lesson or two in proper behavior and manners.

Were he my employee he would not receive the lesson. He would be fired instantly.

Very truly yours,

/s/ John B. Wright

SUBJECT: ELIZABETH BENTLEY
INFORMATION CONCERNING - RESEARCH

For the information of the Bureau, former Special Agent JOHN E. LAWLER called me today and informed me that ELIZABETH BENTLEY has accepted an invitation to speak before the West End Catholic Men's Association, Richmond, Virginia on May 7, 1953. Lawler is Vice-President of this Association which is a large and influential Catholic men's association in the City of Richmond. He is, of course, aware of BENTLEY's former association with the Bureau and thought that the Bureau might possibly be interested in knowing that she was going to speak in Richmond on May 7, 1953.

DATE: 4/10/53

As you are aware, ELIZABETH T. BENTLEY is presently residing at Grand Coteau, Louisiana, where she is teaching Romance Languages at the College of the Sacred Heart. This letter is being forwarded in order that the New Orleans Office may be aware of some of the problems of handling Miss BENTLEY.

For the most part, she has been quite cooperative with the various Agents who have had occasion to contact her. However, she is somewhat of a hypochondriac and subject to periods of depression during which she feels extremely sorry for herself. In addition, she is somewhat improvident in the management of her personal funds and in the past has gotten herself rather heavily in debt. Her indebtedness has served to add to her depression on several occasions and this coupled with the fact that she is presently undergoing the menopause has at times made her difficult to handle. She is somewhat secretive concerning her personal affairs until such time as these affairs get her into difficulty, at which point she has been prone to call upon the Bureau to assist her in overcoming her difficulties.

For the most part, however, when she is not beset by her real and fancied worries, she is friendly and cooperative and relatively undemanding. It is hoped that with steady employment in an atmosphere where she is not under too much pressure she will be quite emotionally stable.

Miss BENTLEY did not ask for nor did she receive payment for her services until last year when, because she was in poor financial condition she was paid $50.00 a week for the six months' period beginning on 7/17/52. In addition, she was given a lump sum payment of $500.00 to assist her in payment of some debts which were then pressing her and causing her considerable emotional upset. Bureau authorization was granted to pay her $50.00 weekly for an additional three months' period but because of the fact that her departure to Louisiana was imminent, she was paid only $100.00 under this authorization. Prior to her departure she made no demands for further payment; however, it is known that she was in somewhat poor financial condition prior to her departure and some financial demands may be forthcoming. Should they arise, the New Orleans Office should, of course, advise the Bureau explaining the circumstances and request authorization for payments.

There is being forwarded with this letter to New Orleans a photostatic copy of the report of SA THOMAS G. SPENCER, made at New York, 12/5/45.

which contains the signed statement of ELIZABETH BENTLEY dated 11/30/45. This statement contains much of the basic information which she has furnished concerning her espionage contacts. Of course, subsequent to this statement she has been questioned on many occasions for details regarding individuals mentioned by her and for information concerning other individuals with whom she might have come in contact.

It is requested that the enclosed report be returned to New York should Miss BENTLEY's employment at the College of the Sacred Heart be terminated and she returns to her home in Madison, Connecticut, for permanent residence. However, if at the close of the current school year it appears she is to return to the college in the fall, New Orleans should retain possession of this report.

It is suggested that contacts with Miss BENTLEY be assigned exclusively to an experienced Agent who has thoroughly familiarized himself of the contents of this letter and the enclosed report. It is further suggested that contacts with her be maintained at a minimum in order that the Agent does not encroach upon her time too much. It is believed that with proper planning it will be unnecessary to contact her more than once a month unless some emergency situation arises which will make more frequent contacts imperative.

Reurmemo dated May 1, 1953, requesting advice on how to reply to a communication from the Immigration and Naturalization Service in New Orleans, indicating it is considering utilizing Bentley as a part-time consultant. You should inform the Immigration and Naturalization Service that we have over a period of years maintained contact with Elizabeth Bentley, and that it is contemplated that we will continue to contact her periodically for information. We have no objection to her being utilized by the INS as a part-time consultant if she so desires.

The New Orleans Office should make arrangements to determine if Bentley is employed as a part-time consultant by the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Re New York letter to Bureau dated 4/10/53.

Miss BENTLEY, who has for the past scholastic year been teaching at the College of the Sacred Heart, Grand Coteau, Louisiana, advised SAS MILTON R. KAACK and WRIGHT PATTON on June 10, 1953 that she was leaving for New York via Eastern Airlines on June 11, 1953. Miss BENTLEY stated that she planned to be in New York and vicinity until the early part of September.

As far as she knows now, she will return to her teaching position at the College of the Sacred Heart at that time. Miss BENTLEY did not know where she would be staying in New York. She stated that she would immediately get in touch with agents of the New York office upon her arrival there.

Miss BENTLEY has not been paid for her services while in the New Orleans division. She volunteered information that teachers were not paid well for their service at the College of the Sacred Heart and also informed that she had not been able to rent or sell her cottage in Madison, Connecticut.

Inasmuch as most of the information requested of Miss BENTLEY comes either through or from the New York office, and that office is, therefore, in a position to estimate the volume of information, which she will be called on to furnish, New York is requested to make suggestions as to payments to Miss BENTLEY if and when she returns to the New Orleans division.
